and found how inconvenient it was to be unable to use my eyes for the balance of the day.

I made a resolve then and there that I would make it possible to replace a broken lens however complicated its formula the same day the order was left with me.

I have succeeded even better than I hoped, for now I am able to replace any broken lens, even when you do not give us the prescription.

Is that worth anything to you? If so, remember this advertisement the next time you break a lens.

This is only one example of the thoroughness and modernness of my entire business.
