

Attention! We Are Moving

WE ARE MOVING NEXT DOOR WEST. CALL AND SEE US IN OUR NEW PLACE OF BUSINESS.

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

CITY DELIVERY

England's Cash Store

SUCCESSOR TO F. C. COFFMAN

School Children's Eyes Should Not Be Neglected

The first symptoms of eye-strain should be heeded.

If the eyes were weak during the last term of school, have them examined before entering school this fall.

Often I can help a child escape glasses later.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S EYES EXAMINED
WITHOUT CHARGE

D. J. Scholl

OPTICIAN OPTOMETRIST
Factory on Premises
Cottage Grove Oregon

Tales of the Town

Durham safety razors complete on sale this week at 15c. The Fair.

Miss Myrtle Kise left Wednesday for Missoula, Mont., to take her position as supervisor of music and art in the public schools there.

Mrs. J. A. Boone, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Hart, left Wednesday for her home in Junction City.

First cash buyer of eggs in Cottage Grove. Yes, still buying. Phone 57. J. F. Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Truett and Miss J. J. Truett returned Monday from a trip to central and southern Oregon. They went by way of McKenzie Pass and returned by way of California and Crater lake.

For dry old growth body fir or mill wood, call City Transfer, phone 99. a5tfe
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crow returned Wednesday to their home in Seattle, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte.

Baked Goods of Superior Quality

It is with a feeling of supreme satisfaction that the housewife places baked goods from our ovens on her table.

She realizes that nothing better could be served to her family or guests. And by having us do this work for her, ample time is allowed for preparing the other articles of food.

Cottage Grove Electric Bakery

Mrs. A. W. Helliwell went to Melrose Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith.

See the window. New showing of Japanese goods, new waists, new midlars. The Fair.

Kenneth Spencer came up from Eugene Wednesday and is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Godard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Taylor were Eugene visitors Tuesday.

Galloway writes insurance. Phone 36.

Mrs. H. T. Huston arrived Wednesday from Kansas City, Mo., with her daughter Marian and niece, Pauline Glass, and is visiting at the home of her brother, N. E. Glass.

James Smith left Tuesday on the re-

Resolve: To Reduce the Prices on Your Grocery Bill

You can do it very easily by having your food requirements met at our store. Our great volume of business enables us to charge less without reducing the quality or quantity. Phone 153 any time and we will deliver your order with satisfying promptness.

SATURDAY SPECIALS:

Armour's corn flakes.....10c
Scotch Lassie herring, large can.....25c
White beans, 20 pounds.....$1.00
Country bacon, home product.....25c

The Store That Appreciates Your Trade

Smith-Short Grocery

Walk a Block and Save a Dime

Campers and picnickers, get a small can of Entomicide to drive insects away from your camp. For sale by Sterling Feed Co. jly29tfe

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Elliott and daughter, who have been visiting for several weeks at the Mrs. Catharine Bader home, leave tomorrow for their home in Pittsburg.

W. C. Allen was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Brakes lined. Free adjustments 30 days thereafter. Overland Garage. j8tfe

Saturday Eugene Register: Kenneth Spencer, of this city, has left for Portland, where he will spend his annual vacation at the home of his brother, Elmer B. Spencer. Miss Ruth Stewart, of Cottage Grove, was in the city yesterday in connection with university work. Miss Stewart will enter the university this fall. Herald White, of this city, has left to join Mrs. White at Long Beach, Wash., and will be absent for several days. Mrs. White has been the guest of her parents at their summer home for the past three weeks.

Waverly oil, guaranteed 100 per cent pure Pennsylvania, at Nelson's Auto Sales and West Side Garage. a19c

John Fisher and family and Wm. Rose and family motored up from Roseburg Sunday and visited the Fred Reider family.

Rev. D. A. McLeod arrived Friday from Portland and spent a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Willard motored up from Ashland last week and visited a few days with Mr. Willard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Willard.

Hair ribbons in remnants, for school. See them at The Fair.

Mrs. J. Q. Willets, accompanied by her brother, George Wharton, and his son, Malloy, returned Friday from Reno, Nev., where she had been called by the death of another brother, Manley Wharton. The trip home was made in Mr. Wharton's motor car.

An 11-pound daughter was born Thursday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kads.

For dry old growth body fir or mill wood, call City Transfer, phone 99. a5tfe

Chester Anlauf, who held a position here with the Standard Oil company, has been transferred to Medford. Mrs. Anlauf is visiting temporarily with Mr. Anlauf's people in Portland.

The A. A. Richmond family motored to Corvallis and spent Sunday with the Briggs family.

For the convenience of the new driver, those giving orders to be sent by the union delivery, are requested to give street addresses with orders. Albert Anderson, proprietor.

Mrs. N. E. Manock, who had been visiting for several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. VanNortwick, left Friday to join her husband at Aurora, where he has purchased a drug business.

Miss Audrey Wentworth and Miss Genevieve Copenhaver, of Eugene, were guests Friday and Saturday at the A. M. Moore home.

Mr. Farmer, your cash for cream and eggs right at your door every week in the year. J. F. Spray Phone 57. a5tfe

Albert Anderson, former resident, who has been ranching in Douglas county for some time, has bought the union delivery from K. B. Hanna. Mr. Hanna has accepted a position with Humphrey & Mackin.

Warren E. Coman, a Portland attorney, was in the city Friday. He was on a trip through western Oregon looking for a location.

Christian Science church, corner Jefferson avenue and Second street.—Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday services at 8 p. m. tf

Miss Esther Silsby and her mother, Mrs. Helen Silsby, are again at their home, after an absence of several weeks. They first went to Portland, where Mrs. Silsby underwent the amputation of one foot. Her condition was serious for some time but she is now doing splendidly. She visited for several weeks at the home of her son, John S. Silsby, at Oregon City, while Miss Silsby went to Wedderburn to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Kerr. On the latter's return she went to Oregon City and brought her mother home.

Straw hats, children's hats, etc., half price during August at The Fair.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 today at the Christian church. The needs of the city are to be discussed and all interested are urged to be present.

Chas. Reese was up Sharp's creek Saturday hunting, got a hurried long distance shot at a bear, accompanied by a couple of cubs, but brought nothing back with him but his return.

Make a price that is right and I will sell that farm or city property for you. Tell me what you want to pay and I'll get the piece of property you want. J. M. Durham. a1tfe

Tom Aubrey is in eastern Oregon on business for a week or 10 days.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Elmer C. Eastman and Mrs. Clara E. Owens, both of Cottage Grove. They were married the same day.

Better place your order for that new Dodge car, as orders must be obtained before we can obtain cars. Nelson's Auto Sales. a26c

Mrs. A. Anlauf, of Portland, who had been visiting at the homes of her son Chester, and her sister, Mrs. Gottfried Graber, returned Saturday to her home, being accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Chester Anlauf.

Frank Wallace, of Portland, visited during the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wallace.

When you want—not the cheapest car to buy—but the cheapest to run—buy Overland. Call 110 for demonstration. jly23tfe

Miss Lois Thomas returned Sunday from spending two weeks in Washington.

W. W. McFarland and Ed. Willson returned Saturday from attending the Elks convention at Marshfield. F. H. Allison was in Marshfield at the same time.

FISK TIRES, less money and more miles. Overland Garage. jly23tfe

Mrs. Edna Sullivan spent Sunday at Dorena with her sister, Mrs. Ben Piche.

Mrs. Wm. Norman, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartels, left Saturday for her home at Dillard, being accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lester Powers, and the latter's two children, Ruth and Lester.

Wanted—Good old 30x3 and 30x3½ casings. Cottage Grove Vulcanizing Works. jly29tfe

Theodore Glaspy, father of Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, died Saturday at Jasper. He was 87 years of age. The funeral was held Monday.

John Kirk and family are on a motor trip to Crater lake. Their son Wayne has a position at Klamath Falls and they will visit there.

65c yard special bargains in table damask at The Fair.

Mrs. W. C. Shortridge went to Eugene Tuesday to accompany her sister, Mrs. Small, home from a hospital there.

Mitchell Wilkins and family left Saturday for New Orleans, where Mr. Wilkins has a government position.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hohl were up from Roseburg over Sunday.

For dry old growth body fir or mill wood, call City Transfer, phone 99. a5tfe

John Bolden, Jr., and N. M. Horton, of Cleveland, O., who had been here for three weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Mattie Clark returned to her home in Portland Friday, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartels.

Feed Sterling scratch feed and Sterling egg mash to your hens and be rewarded with a full egg basket. jly29tfe

Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and daughter, Miss Myrta, are visiting in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short returned Friday from a two weeks' outing at McCredie springs.

We pay the market price for eggs, either cash or trade. Sterling Feed Co. jly29tfe

Rev. D. A. McLeod arrived Friday from Portland and spent a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Willard motored up from Ashland last week and visited a few days with Mr. Willard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Willard.

Hair ribbons in remnants, for school. See them at The Fair.

Mrs. J. Q. Willets, accompanied by her brother, George Wharton, and his son, Malloy, returned Friday from Reno, Nev., where she had been called by the death of another brother, Manley Wharton. The trip home was made in Mr. Wharton's motor car.

An 11-pound daughter was born Thursday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kads.

For dry old growth body fir or mill wood, call City Transfer, phone 99. a5tfe

Chester Anlauf, who held a position here with the Standard Oil company, has been transferred to Medford. Mrs. Anlauf is visiting temporarily with Mr. Anlauf's people in Portland.

The A. A. Richmond family motored to Corvallis and spent Sunday with the Briggs family.

For the convenience of the new driver, those giving orders to be sent by the union delivery, are requested to give street addresses with orders. Albert Anderson, proprietor.

Mrs. N. E. Manock, who had been visiting for several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. VanNortwick, left Friday to join her husband at Aurora, where he has purchased a drug business.

Miss Audrey Wentworth and Miss Genevieve Copenhaver, of Eugene, were guests Friday and Saturday at the A. M. Moore home.

Mr. Farmer, your cash for cream and eggs right at your door every week in the year. J. F. Spray Phone 57. a5tfe

Albert Anderson, former resident, who has been ranching in Douglas county for some time, has bought the union delivery from K. B. Hanna. Mr. Hanna has accepted a position with Humphrey & Mackin.

Warren E. Coman, a Portland attorney, was in the city Friday. He was on a trip through western Oregon looking for a location.

Christian Science church, corner Jefferson avenue and Second street.—Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday services at 8 p. m. tf

Miss Esther Silsby and her mother, Mrs. Helen Silsby, are again at their home, after an absence of several weeks. They first went to Portland, where Mrs. Silsby underwent the amputation of one foot. Her condition was serious for some time but she is now doing splendidly. She visited for several weeks at the home of her son, John S. Silsby, at Oregon City, while Miss Silsby went to Wedderburn to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Kerr. On the latter's return she went to Oregon City and brought her mother home.

Straw hats, children's hats, etc., half price during August at The Fair.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 today at the Christian church. The needs of the city are to be discussed and all interested are urged to be present.

Chas. Reese was up Sharp's creek Saturday hunting, got a hurried long distance shot at a bear, accompanied by a couple of cubs, but brought nothing back with him but his return.

Make a price that is right and I will sell that farm or city property for you. Tell me what you want to pay and I'll get the piece of property you want. J. M. Durham. a1tfe

Tom Aubrey is in eastern Oregon on business for a week or 10 days.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Elmer C. Eastman and Mrs. Clara E. Owens, both of Cottage Grove. They were married the same day.

Better place your order for that new Dodge car, as orders must be obtained before we can obtain cars. Nelson's Auto Sales. a26c

Mrs. A. Anlauf, of Portland, who had been visiting at the homes of her son Chester, and her sister, Mrs. Gottfried Graber, returned Saturday to her home, being accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Chester Anlauf.

Frank Wallace, of Portland, visited during the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wallace.

When you want—not the cheapest car to buy—but the cheapest to run—buy Overland. Call 110 for demonstration. jly23tfe

Miss Lois Thomas returned Sunday from spending two weeks in Washington.

W. W. McFarland and Ed. Willson returned Saturday from attending the Elks convention at Marshfield. F. H. Allison was in Marshfield at the same time.

FISK TIRES, less money and more miles. Overland Garage. jly23tfe

Mrs. Edna Sullivan spent Sunday at Dorena with her sister, Mrs. Ben Piche.

Mrs. Wm. Norman, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartels, left Saturday for her home at Dillard, being accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lester Powers, and the latter's two children, Ruth and Lester.

Wanted—Good old 30x3 and 30x3½ casings. Cottage Grove Vulcanizing Works. jly29tfe

Theodore Glaspy, father of Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, died Saturday at Jasper. He was 87 years of age. The funeral was held Monday.

John Kirk and family are on a motor trip to Crater lake. Their son Wayne has a position at Klamath Falls and they will visit there.

65c yard special bargains in table damask at The Fair.

Mrs. W. C. Shortridge went to Eugene Tuesday to accompany her sister, Mrs. Small, home from a hospital there.

GROCERIES

Vegetables and fruits of the freshest, canned goods of the highest quality, and other edibles of equal merit are offered for your choice here. Phone us your order today, we guarantee your satisfaction.

Ostrander & McQueen

FIRST
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A. R. Spearow, Pastor Seventh Street and Adams Avenue

SUNDAY, AUGUST 28.

Sunday School.....9:45 a. m.
Morning Hour.....11:00 a. m.

Morning Subject: "What Shall I Do With Jesus."
Evening Subject: "The Devil's Interest."

Special music by the junior choir both morning and evening.

THE CHURCH THAT SERVES

Mrs. Alice May Hays, of Monroe, mother of Superintendent Oren W. Hays, died August 22.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wilson and three children arrived Monday by motor from Nampa, Ida., and are visiting at the home of Mr. Wilson's sister-in-law, Mrs. G. W. Sweet.

Big line of Indian alarm clocks at Madsen's Jewelry, $1.50 each. a26c

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus and small daughter returned Sunday from an outing at McCredie springs and a visit with relatives in Portland.

Monday Eugene Guard: Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Boney have returned to the city after a vacation spent at Crater lake and other places. Mr. Boney returned to his duties as manager of the Eugene Farmers' creamery today.

New kind of cash and carry. We pay the cash and we also do the carrying. J. F. Spray. Phone 57. a5tfe

Mrs. J. T. Sprinkel and little son left Tuesday for their home in Junction City, after a visit with relatives.

Wm. Sherwood and family, of Los Angeles, are visiting at the home of Mr. Sherwood's mother, Mrs. B. F. Thrasher.

Philadelphia Diamond Grid batteries, Ford special, exchange price $28.25; Buick special, exchange price $32.20; Dodge special, exchange price $40.20. The above types will fit practically all makes of cars. Overland garage. a12tfe

E. Kelley returned Tuesday from Grants Pass, where he has been for several months.

Mrs. L. W. Hunt, of Wildwood, returned Tuesday from Medford, where she visited her cousin, Mrs. M. F. Young.

Mrs. Howard Hess and daughter Louise, of Roseburg, are visiting with Mrs. Hess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller.

Miss Edna Knight, of Portland, stopped off on her return trip from Crater lake and visited her aunt, Mrs. S. Burckham.

Ivan Moretz and Frank Brumbaugh returned Tuesday from Drain with a buck deer each.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mrs. H. H. Veatch and Miss Mary Ellen Benson motored to Eugene Sunday.

Charles Heck and Herbert Shortridge motored to Portland and are spending the week there.

Elisha Geer returned Tuesday afternoon from Eugene.

W. H. Blair returned Tuesday from a visit at Grays Harbor, Wash.

Edd Jenks came down from Bohemia Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Protzman motored up from Portland Tuesday for a visit of a few weeks with friends.

Mrs. Ernest Lockwood, who has been quite ill, is recovering slowly.

Edna Sullivan left Wednesday for Medford and Ashland to spend a week with relatives.

Mrs. J. H. Free, after spending two months visit with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Haupt, returned Tuesday to her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bennett went to Monroe Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Bennett's sister, Mrs. J. J. Hayes.

Luella Knowlton, who had been staying with her grandmother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney, returned Tuesday to her home in Dexter.

Mrs. Myrtle Angel, of Salem, who had been visiting Mrs. Lizzie Saltsman, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Inez Monteith returned to her

CARE IS OUR WASH WORD

Thorough removal of dirt without injury to the fabric—that's our aim in life.

Pressing Every Day

The COTTAGE GROVE LAUNDRY
Ring Us Up Phone 79

home in Walker Tuesday, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Hanna.

Dr. S. M. Wendt writes that he has located permanently at Newberg, where he has found excellent hospital facilities and where he will practice surgery, X-ray and radium treatments.

Mrs. Glen Scott and Mrs. Wes Christman, of Dorena, were Monday visitors in Eugene.

Mrs. Charles Raymond, who had been visiting at the home of her brother, Omer Moore, has returned to her home in Portland.

School Opens Sept. 19.

The city schools will open on the third Monday in September, the 19th. The complete corps of teachers has been elected and everything is in readiness for the resumption of activities.

You Can Buy a Diamond and Know That Its Value Will Not Decrease

For decades the value of diamonds have steadily, constantly increased, and there are assurances that there will be no decrease in diamond values.

Therefore you are assured that an investment in diamonds is a safe and well-worth-while investment.

In selecting a diamond, buy only of an established and reputable local dealer. We have a fine assortment of diamonds and will be pleased to show them to you.

Madsen's Jewelry

Engraving—Watch Repairing

FEED CHEAPER

Good valley flour.....$1.50
Hard wheat flour.....$2.50
Oregon watermelons, every one guaranteed good, per pound.....2½c

Jones & Eaton Feed and Seed Store

We have the necessary machinery for manufacturing a full line of Poultry Supplies, Dairy Feeds, Hog Feeds, Horse Feeds, Etc.

"Quality" is one of the things which we have developed to a high point during our many years experience in this business. We wish you to consider also the attractiveness of our prices and the prompt and thorough service we render. You may buy cheaper feeds than ours, but you cannot buy better. And in buying our feeds, you have the satisfaction of supporting a home industry.

STERLING FEED COM'Y