

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., Sept. 2.—Will Rogers in "Almost a Husband." The story of an accidental groom. He was a lawyer, a school teacher, a nurse-maid, a washerwoman—and ALMOST a husband. Then quite accidentally he became a REAL husband. It's the funniest complication you ever saw. Don't miss this happy, snappy picture; it's the most enjoyable in many months.

Sat., Sept. 3.—"The Bottom of the World," Sir Ernest Shackleton's thrilling attempt to cross the south pole.

Also "The Golden Hope," starring Edith Story. A powerful drama of the desert, gold and the west.

Sun., Sept. 4.—Bryant Washburn in "The Sins of St. Anthony." Anthony Osgood's Congress gaiters always squeaked sedately. Till he lost his girl because he had no pep. Now his shiny pumps trip round with the "queen" of the jazziest show in town. And every cop on the Primrose Path knows "Tony." A love and laughter romance with a rosebud garden of girls.

Also Vaudeville.

Mon.-Tues., Sept. 5-6.—Wallace Reid in "The Danain' Fool." The tale of a jigger who put the jay in jazz. "Ves" Tibble his name; Hicksville his station. But the gods had given him synecopated feet.

One day he struck New York. His regular job was brushing the dust from Uncle Enoch's moth-eaten jug business. For a dollar a day and experience. His secret side-line was a "Pierre and la Peonie" dance in Broadway's classiest cabaret for $200 a week and the love of a wonderful girl. Until one night—! A laughing picture with a heart of gold.

Wed., Sept. 7.—"The Ladder of Lies," starring Ethel Clayton. Hoping to save another's home and love from wreck, she took on herself the blame for a false wife's escapades. Then love came to her, and—You'll want to see what happened after that!

Thurs., Sept. 8.—Houdini in "Terror Island." See Houdini escape from a nailed-up box forty fathoms under water. See him release a girl from a safe that is locked and sunk in the sea. See his hand-to-hand encounter with a pirate diver under the waves. See him, at grips with a giant savage, plunge from a high cliff into the ocean. See the overseas race to a south sea isle to salvage sunken treasure. See the battle royal for love and gold in a sinking submarine. See the barbarous feast-day rites that lead to human sacrifice. See the world's master of magic and daring in the greatest feats of his whole career.

THIS CITY'S POSTMASTER IS HANDED HIGH COMPLIMENT

The world must be getting decidedly better, despite all doleful predictions to the contrary.

When anyone can find occasion to compliment a federal officeholder, especially one who has held over from a democratic administration, and when a newspaper whose republicanism is 150 per cent permits nice things to be said about a democrat in its columns, surely this old world is becoming a much more pleasant place in which to live.

The Sentinel has received the following letter:
Timber, Ore., Aug. 31.—(To the Editor.)—Having traveled some during the summer and having had mail sent to many offices, I have come to the conclusion that Cottage Grove has the only kind and courteous postmaster in Oregon. I happen to know that one of the first instructions she gives a clerk is, "Remember to be always kind and courteous to patrons." I wonder if patrons of the Cottage Grove postoffice appreciate the kind treatment they get.

"I have met postmasters as gifted as a bear or lion in growls and snarls and I, for one clerk, am glad that it was one of the requirements to be courteous, at least, no matter how many fool questions you were asked during the day.

"And the postmaster has the laurels coming, if you stop to think."

WHEN THE SONS ARE AWAY DADS HAVE FUN

Divide Party of Non-Chiropractors Have Eventful Trip With Sore Footed Lizzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McReynolds, Mrs. A. E. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Chapman left Cottage Grove Saturday, Aug. 20, for Pleasant to visit Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Overholzer.

Here's the way one of the party relates the experience of the trip:

The trip out was pleasant, detours and all, but on the return trip trouble began and one can have trouble with Lizzie, especially when her feet get to hurting. Ours began when nearing Eugene. The men of the party, not being experienced chiropractors, were at a disadvantage. The sons of both families have been in the habit of keeping up the cars. However, the men did very well and we arrived at Eugene for supper. After supper we decided that two or a half hour would give plenty of time to get back to the Grove to the camp meeting, but Lizzie had developed a serious shortage of wind, two tires being affected.

Mr. Chapman bought a new inner tube and got it on Lizzie's front foot and started to fix the hind foot, when pop went the new tube. We did not get to camp meeting but heard a good service on the street in Eugene by the Salvation Army. Meanwhile the men got Lizzie's feet fixed up and we started for home. We had just gotten nicely out near the Springfield crossing when Lizzie had more foot trouble.

Mr. Chapman and Mr. McKeonolds gave up in disgust and proceeded to Springfield for help. Meanwhile the women enjoyed a good visit and watched "the world go by." After repairs had been completed we made good time with no more trouble till the freight held us up at the Divide crossing. That was a good thing for the freight, as the men discovered a car was on fire and called the brakie's attention to it. The car was loaded with potatoes and two or three knights of the road, all of whom were saved, so some good came of our troubles.

We arrived safely home at a little after 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

Many Cars Caught by Tide.
Mrs. Clara Burkholder and daughter, Miss Belle, are at Cannon beach on an outing. Miss Belle has had an airplane ride out over the ocean. They had the experience of a two-mile ride along the beach at high tide. Many cars are caught by the tide and are found bottom side up after the water recedes, 27 being caught in one day while detouring on the beach on account of a slide on the highway.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
