

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri.—"Told in the Hills," by Robert Warwick. "Told in the Hills" is a mighty epic of the west of the pioneers, of scout and gold hunter and roving Indian, of the west as it was in other times and never will be again.

Eileen Sedgwick in "The Diamond Queen," chapter 4.

Sat.—"Homer Comes Home" by Charles Ray. Biggest day the old burg ever saw; and who but that blamed Homer Cavender layin' the corner stone of the new town hall—him that folks thought would never amount to anything! See Charles Ray in a real Ray picture.

Comedy—Snub Pollard in "Queens Up."

Sun.—Wanda Hawley in "The Snob." It is a comedy in which laughs are thicker than snowflakes. A comedy of youth, love and college days in a typical American college. Sunshine Comedy—"Slipping Feet."

Mon.-Tues.—"When Bear Cat Went Dry." Everyone who has read this Charles Neville Buck novel of the Cumberlands will want to see the picture. Illicit stills, moonshiners, feuds and love and courtship, are the elements that enter into the making of "When Bear Cat Went Dry."

Wed.—Marguerite Clark in "Away Goes Prudence."

Comedy—"Take It Easy."

Thursday—Viola Dana in "The Chorus Girl's Romance," a Saturday Evening Post story. Could she shimmy? The world will tell you that she could. Do nice girls shimmy? Yes, when they have the gift! Don't fail to see Viola Dana as Marcia Meadows shimmy in "The Chorus Girl's Romance."

Someone who claims to know says that in the days when Latin was a live language the word "editor" meant "something to eat." The edible variety isn't raised in this country.

A crusty bachelor says he would be happy if he had a wife to do his cooking, mend his clothes and look after his personal comfort. So would some married men.

Many a father, when a boy, got away with a piece of devilry for which his own children get a trouncing.

A man asks the value of a dollar made in 1852. We don't know, but it would be worth something to know how he saved it so long.

Why is everyone so afraid of a burglar? He has more reasons to be scared than those belonging in the house.

SOCIETY

Mrs. C. S. Roberts and Mrs. H. K. Metcalf will be hostesses to the Constellation club next Thursday afternoon, which will be the first meeting of the fall season.

The Tuesday Evening club held its first meeting of the fall season this week in the high school library. Regular meetings will now be held every other week.

The ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the church parlors. Mrs. B. E. Job, Mrs. James Porter and Mrs. E. McAbby will be the hostesses.

The M. P. G. club held a pleasant session Tuesday with Mrs. Karl K. Mills, Mrs. Titus, of Eugene, being a guest. Refreshments were served. A business session was held at which the following officers were elected: Mrs. Armand L. Wynne, president; Mrs. J. T. Smith, secretary-treasurer. This was the first meeting of the fall season. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday with Mrs. Charles Adams.

Members of the Tuesday Evening club entertained their husbands at a fried chicken picnic dinner in Curran park Thursday evening of last week. Miss Nellie Myers and D. R. Hamant were additional guests.

Eleanor M. Feeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Feeney, entertained several of her little friends Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her sixth birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the little ones and Miss Eleanor received a number of pretty gifts.

The LaComus club meets next Tuesday with Mrs. N. E. Glass.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 this afternoon in the Methodist church. Everyone interested is invited.

Gets Offer for Gold Mine.
O. H. Willard has received a letter from Seattle from a man who claims to be an old prospector and who wishes to develop the gold mine which he thinks Mr. Willard must have in his back yard. The man had read the item about the gold nuggets found in the gizzard of a chicken raised on the Willard place. Mr. Willard replied that he was an old prospector himself and didn't need any outside assistance.

Grain Better Than Expected.
The neighborhood thresher has completed its run in the Lynx Hollow section. A total of 5600 bushels of the several grains were threshed in the hollow, which is a light crop but is better than was expected when cut. Much grain was cut for hay. The same outfit threshed 4400 bushels of grain for farmers outside the hollow.

Household Hints

Yolks of eggs are "well beaten" when thick, light and lemon colored.

A bit of thyme added to the filling for a fowl will give it a good flavor.

An electric iron outfit in the sewing room is a great convenience.

Even a spoonful of cereal is worth saving to thicken soup, gravy or sauce.

After washing the sink, sprinkle a little chloride of lime down the drain pipe.

Beat the whites of two eggs until stiff and dry, and add to two cups of plain mayonnaise. This makes a deliciously fluffy dressing.

Butter made from pasteurized cream or milk should be given to children in their sixth year. Before that age, jellies and fruit butters are much better for them.

A fruit salad may be served with cheese balls in place of the customary dessert. The bread sticks may be split open, buttered and laid on the edge of the salad plate.

If you have trouble with your cake becoming stale, try cutting out a portion right across the middle first and put the two sides that are left together.

A good dressing for fruit salad is made by adding to one cup of plain mayonnaise three tablespoons sweet whipped cream and three-quarters of a cup of grated coconut.

Gingham is highly commended as summer cottage curtain material and the up-to-date nursery, whether in town or country, now has summer curtains, crib coverings, dresser coverings, etc., of fine checked gingham.

Tested Recipes

Rice With Bacon and Tomatoes.
Melt two tablespoons bacon fat or fry three or four slices bacon in a saucepan. Add one slice of onion and one cup unglazed rice and cook slowly until fat is absorbed. Add 1½ cups strained tomato pulp, 2 teaspoons salt, dash of pepper and two cups water to stock. Cook slowly until the rice is tender. If desired add ½ cup grated Parmesan cheese.

Bran Date Biscuits.
One and one-half cups bran, 1½ cups graham flour, 1½ cups wheat flour, 2 tablespoons baking powder, three-quarters teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons melted oleo, 1 cup milk, 1 cup shredded dates. Mix and sift together dry ingredients, add fat and milk, mix well and add shredded dates. Roll out on floured board to about half an inch in thickness and cut with cookie cutter. Bake on greased baking sheet in a quick oven.

Noodles and Clams.
Two eggs beaten, 1 level teaspoon salt, as much flour as the eggs will take. Remove to board and work in as much flour as you possibly can. Roll out thin and let dry 1½ hours (less in warm weather), roll out like jelly roll and cut in thin slices with sharp knife. Shake out and drop in boiling water and boil 20 minutes, keeping stirred so as not to lump. Heat can of minced clams, butter baking dish and put in first layer of noodles and then layer of clams, pepper, salt and butter. Repeat. Finish with cracker crumbs on top and bake 30 minutes.

F—go get some makin's papers and some Prince Albert tobacco and puff away on a home made cigarette that will hit on all your smoke cylinders!

No use sitting-by and saying maybe you'll cash this hunch tomorrow. Do it while the going's good, for man-o-man, you can't figure out what you're passing by! Such flavor, such coolness, such more-ish-ness—well, the only way to get the words emphatic enough is to go to it and know yourself!

And, besides Prince Albert's delightful flavor, there's its freedom from bite and parch which is cut out by our exclusive patented process! Certainly—you smoke P. A. from sun up till you slip between the sheets without a comeback.

Prince Albert is the tobacco that revolutionized pipe smoking. If you never could smoke a pipe—forget it! You can—AND YOU WILL—if you use Prince Albert for packing! It's a smoke revelation in a jimmy pipe or a cigarette!
