SOCIETY

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church held its annual experience social at the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. The affair was one of the most successful in the annals of the society, over $130 being turned into the coffers as the results of the members' efforts. The hostesses, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. G. B. Pitcher, Mrs. Earl Hill and Mrs. W. J. White had decorated the church parlors with autumn flowers, and served a delicious lunch to over sixty guests.

The Harvest Home dance sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion at Moose hall Saturday night was a successful affair socially and financially. The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage, making a suitable setting for the ceremony of crowning the harvest queen, who was gracefully impersonated by Mrs. Edna Sullivan. The Auxiliary was highly pleased with the good attendance and the fine spirit of cooperation shown by the public.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey's class in the M. E. Sunday school planned a successful party for last Friday evening, when they invited twenty friends from the Freshmen and Sophomore classes in the high school to the church parlors for a social evening. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Members of the W. O. W. and their families gathered at their lodge rooms Friday evening for several hours of unalloyed pleasure. An excellent program of vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed, refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in by the young people.

Members of the W. R. C. will hold their next regular meeting Saturday, October 22. A large attendance for practice is hoped for, as the department president will be here the following Monday for inspection.

Mrs. G. W. Sweet, Mrs. A. E. Barrows and Mrs. W. F. Johnson were hostesses to the Kensington club at Old Fellows hall Monday evening. A delightful social evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served.
