To knowing boys and girls the rigid rule for frigid days is to scurry into Lackawanna Twins underwear. It fits the wearer and the weather.

The fabric of Lackawanna Twins is gentle to the skin, hardy to service. It is sterilized and pre-shrunk in live steam, thus tubbing without fear of shrinking. Its lasting qualities are great.

Lumbermen Are Recovering. J. S. Maglady, of the Bohemia Lumber company, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is able to be on the streets of Eugene several hours each day. He does not expect to return to his business at Row River for several weeks. He recently received a letter from Lon Hill in which Mr. Hill stated that it will be several months yet before he can return to his business. He would be able to get around on crutches except that his fractured wrist has not healed sufficiently to permit him to handle the crutches. Mr. Hill was seriously injured in an automobile wreck several months ago and is now at his home near San Francisco.
