

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri.—Betty Compson in "For Those We Love," supported by Lon Chaney.

"Diamond Queen," chapter eleven.

Sat.—"Snowblind," and the cast, Russell Simpson, Pauline Stark, Cullen Landis and Mary Alden. It is one of the really significant pictures of the year, and no follower of the photoplay can afford to miss it.

Comedy, "Open Another Bottle."

Sun.—"The Cost," with Violet Heming. A romance of love and Wall street.

Hoot Gibson in "Bandits Beware."

Mon.—Tues.—H. B. Warner in "One Hour Before Dawn." A drama as powerful and magnetic as a hypnotist's eyes. What happened "One Hour Before Dawn?" A mystery to challenge the mind of man. A puzzle to elude the intuition of woman. Can you solve it?

Wed.—Robert Warwick in "The City of Masks," with Lois Wilson. A city where lives are veiled, and lovers oft are strangers—that's New York. The city of unknown faces—hurrying past—lost. Where your next door neighbor may be a genius, a prince or a gunman—but always a mystery. Such is the theme of "The City of Masks."

Harold Lloyd in one of his famous comedies, "Move On."

Thurs.—Elaine Hammerstein in "Whispers." Adventure treading on the heels of adventure through a thrilling haze of romance. When people talk about you it is not so bad, but when they "whisper," look out, beware of whispers.

"International News," current events of the day included in the evening's showing.

Also comedy, "Hearts and Flour."

A continuous stream of power

From the first turn of the motor until the end of the trip, Red Crown gasoline delivers steady, dependable power.

Every gallon of "Red Crown" which goes into your tank insures ready starting, smooth and rapid acceleration and more mileage—a continuous stream of power. That explains the popularity of "Red Crown"—why it is the choice of motorists who know what good gasoline should do.

It pays to look for the Red Crown sign before you fill. You will find that sign at Standard Oil Service Stations, garages, and at other dealers.
