VETERAN SCHOOLS RAPPED

Less Theory and More Practical Aid Is Needed in System.

Washington, D. C.—The present system of federal vocational training contains "decidedly too much theory" and needs the injection of practical methods, Director Forbes of the veterans' bureau declared in a report to President Harding covering his recent country-wide inspection of hospitalization and vocational training facilities.
Colonel Forbes characterized the system as "unmistakably and absolutely wrong," and expressed doubt whether "very many men have actually been rehabilitated by the government and have gone back to their respective communities as wage earners and as assets."

Honesty in Business

GRAY'S CASH AND CARRY STORES ARE RUN ON A STRICTLY HONEST BASIS. We never intend to misrepresent our goods or tell you something that isn't absolutely true. For example we do not give so called "free" delivery. There is no such thing. To deliver goods costs money. So instead of charging more for the goods and making you think you are getting something free we make a small charge for our delivery. Our delivery charge is based on one trip to your house, so if you want to save, buy a week's supply at a time. The delivery charge is no more on a large order than on a small one. And if you want to carry your goods you don't pay for the delivery expense of your neighbor.
