

ARCADE THEATER

WEEKLY PROGRAM

Thomas Jefferson. Adapted Fri.—"Rip Van Winkle," by from Washington Irving's famous classic by the same name. Who does not know—who does not love "Rip Van Winkle!" the fascinating old sinner who has a place in the hearts of five generations of us, ever since Washington Irving gave him a being one hundred years ago. There will be a matinee for all school children, and the public as well. All under 12 years of age 10c, all pupils over 12, 20c.

Sat.—William Russell in "The Cheater Reformed." The final chapter of the "Diamond Queen" will be shown Saturday night instead of Friday night.

Sun.—Justine Johnstone in "Playthings of Broadway." Comedy, "Brownie's Baby Doll," a famous Brownie dog comedy.

Mon.—Tues.—"The Mysterious Rider." Zane Grey's latest story in pictures. The cast: Claire Adams, Robert McKim, Frank Hayes and others of a notable character. Zane Grey paints the modern west with a brush that is unsurpassed by none.

Wed.—"Dangerous Hours," by an all star cast. A C. Gardner Sullivan production. "Dangerous Hours" deals with the biggest struggle in history—the struggle going on all over the world this minute. A picture you cannot afford to miss.

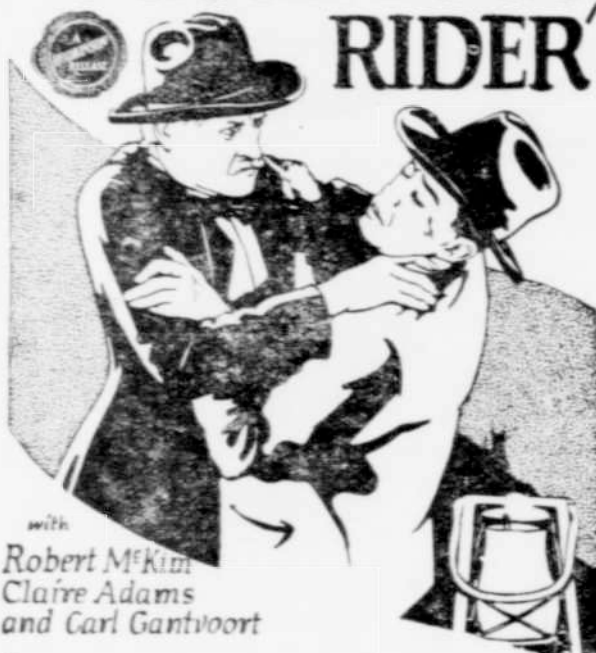

Thurs.—"Guilty of Love," by Dorothy Dalton. This is a story of a young girl who loved not wisely but too well, and the dramatic events that followed.

Also "International News," current events of the day. The world before your eyes.

A BENJ. B. HAMPTON PRODUCTION

ZANE GREY'S Powerful Story

The MYSTERIOUS RIDER

with Robert McKim, Claire Adams and Carl Gantvoort

"We heard a shot at Moore's cabin. Why are you so anxious to get away?"

Bill Bellows, cattle raiser, pioneer and gentleman, placed a detaining hand on his son's bridle rein.

This is one of the situations in Zane Grey's powerful story of the vigorous west that will make the blood race through your veins.

It is a drama that will hold you spell-bound, in which a single thread of love is woven into a mighty hand of devotion.

A story of smiles and tears, of clouds and sunshine.

At Arcade Theatre Monday and Tuesday, December 19 and 20

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Porter, who left Monday for San Diego, Calif., to spend the winter, were guests of the Mothers club Saturday afternoon at a reception held in the rest room. The rest room was made possible by the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Porter donated the rent thereof. Those who sat down to lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Porter were Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Job, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. William Laddess, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Darby, Mrs. Virgil White and Mrs. Daisy Porter. After the luncheon, Mrs. Darby made a short talk in which she told how much the gift by the Porters meant to the welfare of the city and expressed for the club the best wishes of its members.

The ladies aid of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. The hostesses were Mrs. J. E. Blackmore, Mrs. Harry (trube) and Mrs. C. M. Jackson.

Mrs. I. T. Brunfield was the guest of honor at a farewell surprise party Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson. She was leaving that night to join her husband at Marshfield.

Mrs. G. B. Pitcher entertained the La Comus club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. T. Smith and Mrs. Roy Short were guests of the club.

Mrs. D. C. Bosley entertained fifteen of Miss Virginia's friends Wednesday evening in honor of the latter's fifteenth birthday anniversary. The affair was an entire surprise to the guest of honor. Refreshments were served.

The Nelson Durham, A. A. Richmond, S. L. Mackin and C. E. Umphrey families held a covered dish supper Monday evening at the Umphrey home.

Row River Society. Master Faye Stewart, little son of Mr. and Mrs. LaSells Stewart, entertained a number of his friends Saturday afternoon, the occasion being his sixth birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Charles Plouard and son Charles were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a number of the young people called to help celebrate their dual birthday anniversaries. A pleasant evening was spent and at a late hour refreshments were served.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

The tryouts Monday evening for positions on the debating teams resulted as follows:

Resolved that the Philippine Islands should be retained; affirmative, Margaret Young and Kathleen McKeay; negative, Elinor Knowles and Rita Kelly; won by affirmative.

Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished in Oregon; affirmative, Lenora Hubbell; negative, Margaret Hemenway; won by affirmative.

Resolved that a person will do more for money than for love; affirmative, Wayne Veatch and Alta Hays; negative, Ralph Fullerton and Floyd Runk; won by affirmative.

Resolved that the manufacture and sale of cigars should be prohibited in the United States. Through error both teams took the affirmative. First place was given Brighton Leonard and second place was given Harold Whitlock and Ernest Kurre. The other debater was Bernard Bratton.

The judges were Superintendent Hays, Principal Hargreaves and Worth Harvey.

Following are the results of a tryout held Wednesday evening:

Resolved that the Indians has been unfairly treated by the white men; affirmative, Samuel Swartz and Dwight Buchmann; negative, Marion Richmond and Ethel Lambert; won by affirmative.

Resolved that a high school education should be compulsory; affirmative, Ruth Powers and Nellie Stewart; negative, Wilbur Spray and Ardie Eby; won by affirmative.

Resolved that the United States should abolish the Monroe doctrine; affirmative, Wm. Skilling; negative, Frank Snodgrass; won by negative.

Resolved that women should be given equal political rights with men; affirmative, Robert Galloway and Jack Bengert; negative, Charles Spray and Harry Skilling; won by affirmative.

Another tryout is to be held next Monday, after which selections will be made for positions on the high school debating teams.

LORANE GRANGERS SEEM OPPOSED TO EXPOSITION

Lorane, Ore., Dec. 14.—(Special to The Sentinel).—The proposed 1925 exposition was one of the subjects up before the meeting of the Lorane grange Saturday. There were heated arguments pro and con. The body took no action but the majority opinion seemed to be that the present is a most inopportune time to promote a fair, especially as the benefits to be derived are problematical and that it should be the aim of the present to reduce taxes rather than augment the burden.

The completion of the new high school building was hailed as only the beginning of endeavors to make the high school an institution in which the community may feel a pardonable pride. A consolidated grade school was suggested as a need equal to that of the high school.

WAR TAX IS TAKEN OFF TICKETS AND FREIGHT BILLS

Agent Jones, of the Southern Pacific, has received notification that after January 1 there will be no war tax on passenger tickets and freight bills. The tax has been about 8 per cent, so that the saving to the public will be a considerable one.
