

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., Dec. 23.—"It's a Great Life." Adapted from the famous "The Empire Builders," written by Mary Roberts Rinehart. An all star cast, including Cullen Landis and others. Don't fail to see it, "It's a Great Life" if you don't weaken.

Sat., Dec. 24.—"Forbidden Valley." A Kentucky romance with May McAvoy and Bruce Gordon. A drama of the great outdoors. It tells of a Kentucky girl brought up in the belief that family honor comes first, and she recognized no law but family honor.

Comedy, "Make It Snappy," by Snub Pollard.

Sun., Dec. 25.—"Heart of the Hills," by Mary Pickford. Continuous show from 2 p. m. on.

Mon.-Tues., Dec. 26-27.—

"Double Speed," Wallace Reid. He left New York a millionaire. He reached Los Angeles a tramp. Then he disappeared—became a chauffeur—posed as his real self—was pinched as a crook—loved like a gentleman—married like a flash. For fun and thrills, take a spin in "Double Speed."

Wed., Dec. 28.—"Hairpins," Enid Bennett. She thought her husband too fast. He thought his wife too slow. Then one day she awoke. A few gay parties and see what happened.

Thurs., Dec. 29.—"The Fourteenth Man," with Robert Warwick. He caught a burglar in her room, then helped him blow the safe. Yet this was the girl he loved. A sizzling tale of a soldier of fortune who played through a mystery and won.

SOCIETY

Miss Bertha Howe celebrated her eighteenth birthday at her home on south Fifth street Monday evening with a six o'clock dinner. Guest list included: Dollie Pitcher, Mabel Martin, Elsie Heek from London, Myrtle Teeters, Ruth Lebow, Loherta Miller, Josie Bonis, Mrs. Rosa Curran, Ollie Bonis, Hattie Lebow, Evelyn Veach and Veta Plaster.

Mrs. G. B. Pitcher entertained a dozen young girls in a delightful manner Thursday evening in honor of Miss Dollie's birthday. The guests were the misses Elsie Sterling, Wilma and Marie Thurber, Kathryn McQueen, Evelyn Veach, Bertha Howe, Mabel Martin, Crystal and Pearl Robinson and Miss Dollie's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Kerr.

At Masonic hall Thursday afternoon the Constellation club were entertained by Mrs. Bealer, Mrs. Durham, Mrs. Short and Mrs. Cruson. Profuse Christmas decorations, elaborate refreshments and the fascinating tree which were arranged by the hostesses made the occasion extremely festive. Mrs. R. K. Lawson was an additional guest of the club.

Mrs. O. L. Nichols entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Birch avenue, the club's usual Christmas tree being the chief attraction. The gifts were uniquely concealed in a large snowball surrounded by evergreen branches and colored electric lights centering the long lunch table. Miss Helliwell was a guest.

The Tanglefoot club enjoyed a delightful dancing party Tuesday evening at American Legion hall which was gay with Christmas greenery for the occasion. The hostesses were Mrs. Helliwell, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Lebow and Mrs. Laswell. Miss Helliwell, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. B. K. Lawson, of Wedderburn, were guests.

Miss Elmer Knowles and Miss Myrtle Potts, with the girls of the W. H. class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, entertained the boys' class of the Sunday school Friday evening in American Legion hall. Vocal music, games and dancing were the diversions. Refreshments were served.

Reverend and Mrs. Grant and Rev. and Mrs. Peux were pleasantly surprised at the Grant home Wednesday evening by a number of friends and members of the Baptist church who spent the evening with social conversation, prayer and music.

Miss Ruth Robinson was a hostess Monday evening to a group of young ladies who constitute an informal club which is yet nameless. A Christmas tree and the exchange of gifts was the chief feature of an evening filled with merriment and exciting surprise.

At Eugene, Wednesday, occurred the marriage of Miss Paul Sears, daughter of L. A. Sears, to Lawrence Wilson, of Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have gone to the Dalles for a visit with Mrs. Wilson's relatives, after which they will be at home at Ashland.

Mrs. Raymond Grabe entertained the Bridge club at a luncheon Tuesday at her home on Adams avenue. The rooms were beautifully decorated with the holiday colors of red and green. Mrs. Earl Arthur won high honors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Houser went to Ashland Saturday to celebrate the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Houser, it being the Houser's fourteenth wedding anniversary and the Houser's seventh.

The members of the Bridge club entertained their husbands at a supper after the dancing party Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Avery Lasswell, of Yoncalla, were guests.

The Joker club was pleasantly entertained Monday evening by Miss Elise Price at the Elbert Bode home.

USE MORE BUTTER

Milk, cream, ice cream and other dairy products. They contain every element needed by the body to keep it in first class running condition. Butter, lots of it, especially of the Red Rose Brand, is to the body what fuel and lubrication are to the powerful engine. Poor fuel and poor lubricant will not do for Nature's most delicate piece of machinery, the human body. Give it the best fuel and best lubricant—Red Rose Brand butter.
