

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., Dec. 30—Jack Pickford in "The Man Who Had Everything." Young Harry Bullway was born with everything—and found he had nothing. So he started all over again with empty hands, and discovered that money and good times are nothing in life and that love and self respect are everything. Also a Sunshine comedy.

Sat., Dec. 31—William Farnum in "The Scuttlers." A thrilling story of the sea, that deals with brutality, crime, love and heroism on the high seas.

"Winners of the West," with Art Acord. Thrilling exploits in the lives of Kit Carson and Captain John C. Fremont. An eighteen episode serial. Come and follow Kit Carson and Captain Fremont across the great plains in the famous trail breaking expedition of 1848 to the gold fields of California.

Sun.-Mon., Jan. 1-2—"Let's Be Fashionable." Douglas McLean and Doris May. You see, my dear, they tried to live faster than their speed limit. And when they joined that er-rather sporty set at the country club, with its soul hobbies, and "My Goodness!" it set the whole town laughing. You simply must see "Let's Be Fashionable."

Tues., Jan. 3—"God's Crucible," with Wilton Lackaye. "God's Crucible" tells the story of a young stranger within our gates who fought bravely to overcome the countless obstacles that confronted him—and who won his fight.

Wed., Jan. 4—Bryant Washburn in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram." Hubby was home again—he'd been out all night—and was innocent—been to sit up with a sick friend. But she caught him. Result—that "Telegram."

Thu., Jan. 5—Sessue Hayakawa in "The First Born." From the play by Francis Powers. The greatest Chinese drama ever produced. A picturization of San Francisco's famous Chinatown in the days before the fire, in a tale that is thrilling with romance and dramatic action.

To Our Many Friends and Patrons of the Arcade Theatre

We wish to announce that we have sold the Arcade Theatre, of Cottage Grove, to Mr. W. M. Morelock, of Portland, who comes to you well recommended, and who is an experienced showman.

We wish to thank you for your patronage and courtesy shown us during our stay in Cottage Grove, and hope the same will be shown to our successor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Dickinson

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

—is our wish for every resident of the Cottage Grove country. Whether a patron or not, we wish you all good things during the twelve months to come.

Tested Recipes

Creamed Beef Honolulu.

Fill baking dish one-third full of boiled rice seasoned with salt and pepper. Lay on this a layer of dried beef two or three slices deep which has been soaked a few minutes in lukewarm water, season with pepper and dot with butter, then another layer of rice. Dot top with butter and fill with milk or half milk and half the water the rice was cooked in. Bake until the top is brown.

Ham Baked in Milk.

Take a slice of ham at least an inch and a half thick, freshen in water and place in a covered pan or casserole and cover with sweet milk. Bake slowly about two hours, or until tender, adding milk as necessary. If desired, the milk may be thickened and served as gravy.
