This week's top five

1 DEPOE BAY — A rainy start to September makes for perfect conditions for the Depoe Bay Salmon Bake, which sees volunteers set up a fire line some 80 feet long to roast wild caught Coho to perfection this Saturday.

See page 11

2 LINCOLN CITY — A sole US flag flying in the breeze can be a stirring sight. But the power of a thousand fluttering in unison is hard to put into words. So, come see for yourself as the Field of Honor returns to Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

See page 16

3 NEWPORT — Climate change is the sort of problem that can feel overwhelming. Avoid the paralysis by breaking it down into little tasks with a bit of help from the speakers at Saturday's "Saving the Future for our Children" event.

See page 8

4 MANZANITA — "So, what does that author have to say about life in the Great Frontier?" "I don't know, Alaska when she gets here." Get a female perspective on the 49th state this Saturday in Manzanita.

See page 6

5 NEWPORT — Seen one oboe player and you've seen them all (no offense). But this weekend's concert from the Newport Symphony Orchestra at the Ocean is paired with inspiring images of the coast, making it a feast for both eyes and ears.
