This week's top five

1 LINCOLN CITY — The Angels Ball is the social event of the season, offering the chance to catch up with old friends and even make a few new ones, all while raising funds for Angels Anonymous, so be sure to bid early and bid often.

See page 8

2 NEWPORT — Don Quixote will forever be a symbol of the starry-eyed dreamer that lives within us all. See Cervantes' delusional but lovable hero brought to life as Porthole Players presents "The Man of La Mancha."

See page 14

3 MANZANITA, NEHALEM & WHEELER — Meet Santa in Manzanita, get served wine as you wander through Wheeler and find great bargains everywhere as these three villages pull together to present Plaid Friday.

See page 17

4 LINCOLN CITY — Taft's iconic dock isn't much of a spot for crabbing anymore thanks to the years of sediment accumulation that have left it mostly high and dry. But it will serve to snag the attention of travelers on Highway 101 when it hosts the city's new Deck the Dock lights display this winter.

5 TOLEDO — What could be nicer for burning off the Thanksgiving calories than milling about in the mill town of Toledo for a few hours? Join the Coastal Gems walking group as they tackle their final stroll of the year.
