A virtual top five

1 YOUR HOME — Whether it's Strength Training, Tai Chi or Gentle Yoga, Lincoln City Parks and Recreation has a virtual class to help keep you in shape during lockdown. Check their Facebook page for updates and stay tuned for a class schedule.

2 YOUR HOME — Staying at home doesn't mean restricting your cultural intake to binge watching "Tiger King" on Netflix. The Lincoln City Cultural Center is here to help, with Creative Quarantine Facebook broadcasts at 7 pm Monday to Saturday and 2 pm on Sundays.

3 YOUR HOME — If you're planning take-out this week, be sure to check the Oregon Coast TODAY Facebook page for the latest of our Lockdown Lowdown contests, supporting local restaurants and offering the chance to win a feast.

4 YOUR HOME — Lincoln City's Driftwood Public Library has increased its selection of e-books and digital audio books. Go to <https://library2go.overdrive.com> and select "Oceanbooks" as your home library. For assistance, contact Matthew at mbaiocchi@lincolncity.org or 541-996-1116.

5 YOUR HOME — Life is weird right now. And Manzanita's Hoffman Center for the Arts is hoping people will channel that weirdness into art for its new online salon "Creating in Place." Submit your creations at <https://hoffmanarts.org>.
