

Pride key to Sergeant football win

Pride has its place in sports and according to Coach Roy Harrington, pride was the key to the junior varsity football team's 12-7 win over Madison last week.

After losing 42-6 at the hands of Franklin, the Sergeants rebounded with a fine game against the Senators.

"The whole team was mentally in the game and 30-32 boys played," revealed Coach Harrington.

Passes accounted for the Sergeant scores, as passing back Glenn Butherus fired two touchdown strikers, one to Stig Johansen; the other to Dave Edwards.

Backfield starters Butherus, Dave Dimitre, Brad Popick and Larry Leas all played fine games, according to Coach Harrington.

Other standouts included Edwards, Johansen, Rick Vlcek, Jim Fall, who sustained a sprained ankle late in the game and linebacker Ron Marrs.

Yesterday, the Sergeants traveled to Jefferson, described by Coach Harrington as a tough team strong at fullback, quarterback and the ends.

"We have had an exceptional defensive line, but that pride has really been the key," concluded Coach Harrington.

Junior halfback Harry Whitney grabs a pass from Bob Ewen for a sizeable gain in last Friday's contest with Jefferson.

Generals plan Indian ambush tonight

Cleveland's Indians will pose the next threat to stall the General championship drive at Madison high school tonight.

Experience is a major problem for the Indians, who suit down only 8 seniors, and depend on fullback Roger Smith to power their offense.

Smith, filling the vacancy left by all-city back Ron Eskildsen, also does the Cleveland kicking.

Junior quarterback Dan Noah is expected to pass, and Jerry Smith, who grabbed two of Tom Reynolds' passes for scores in a losing effort at Madison, is expected to be a prime target. Other receivers are Jay Fowler and Randy Kuch.

Although depth is a major problem, the Indian defense is experienced and strong, bolstered by Rondie Cowan, Jim Engles, Robb Scounce and John Leu, according to Indian chief Gene Flippen.

Steady improvement has been shown by the Generals, as demonstrated in last week's 29-21 conquest of Jefferson.

Unable to contain Onia Bates and Bob Ewen, the Demos found the General attack too powerful; our defense too aggressive.

Ewen ground out 163 yards in 22 attempts, including a 66 yard romp that opened the scoring.

Junior Harry Whitney has shown that he can run well, and he slipped through the Demo line for one General score. Walt Ericksen and Bates accounted for the other touchdowns and Ewen booted the conversions.

Freshman football team to rely on talent potential, good turnout

Talent, potential and quantity are three major factors that could ignite the freshmen football team into a championship season.

Facing one of the biggest turnouts ever at the freshman level, new head coach Bill White will be suiting up 94 players.

Sportscaster post earned by Mathews

Senior Greg Mathews was one of 6 finalists selected to broadcast Portland Interscholastic league football over radio station KBPS, according to station producer Jerome Thompson.

For only the second time in the 44-year broadcast history of the station there will be a girl football sportscaster. She is Susan Shephard, a Wilson senior.

Remaining announcers come from Cleveland, Jefferson and Benson. They were selected from almost 2 dozen hopefuls.

Cross country champion Corvallis to meet city contenders at Wilson

State cross country champion Corvallis high school will make a Portland showing against PIL stalwarts Grant, Marshall, Wilson, and down state foe South Salem this Wednesday in what could be a sneak preview of this year's State meet.

"Corvallis is definitely the team to beat," stated Coach Mark Cotton. With 6 of last year's seven runners returning, Corvallis, led by senior Dan Korbett, is a serious threat to repeat at State this fall.

Hoping to finish Corvallis as the A-1 favorite on Wilson's grueling course will be perennial powers Grant and Marshall.

Grant, led by junior Bruce McCormmach and senior Kevin Monson, will lead a battery of runners into Wednesday's clash. The Generals should be completely recovered from last week's meet against Cleveland, Benson and Jeff. Because of the 90 degree heat, each runner's time was considerably slower than usual.

1965 city cross country champion Tom Taylor, and third in city Steve Squires will bolster the Minute-men's attack. Squires is most noted for his two-mile duels with Benson's Mike Hahn last year in track.

Although South Salem and Wilson are lacking depth, junior ace Bill Carley carries the Trojans' hopes for an upset victory.
