

Generals topple Cleveland; vault into league lead

ONIA BATES, number 20, eludes Cleveland's Roger Smith en route to a touchdown last Friday at Madison. Bates romped 40, 48, and 54 yards for scores as the Generals downed Cleveland, 48-19.

Swimming squad to meet Colonials, Solons in races

After winning 2 meets last week, the varsity swim squad will face Washington at Buckman Monday, then clash with Madison at Couch on Thursday.

Coach Carl Rubin doesn't expect the Colonials to be overpowering, but Madison could be another story. "If they have the use of the Town and Country club pool they could be very tough," he said.

In their first meet, the Generals trounced Marshall, 74-20, and came back the next day to whip Jackson, 90-16.

In the Jackson encounter, the team took first place in 11 events, second in 7 events and 2 thirds.

Besides receiving ample strength from his veterans, Coach Rubin got added support from his crop of freshmen. First-year men Jeff Pitman and Mark Powell contributed heavily to the Generals' point total.

Pitman won the 400-yard backstroke, the 80-yard individual medley and was on the winning relay team.

Cross country members host league opponents Wednesday

Going after its third win, the varsity cross country team will play host to Jefferson, Lincoln, and Franklin next Wednesday at 4 p.m.

"This won't be a particularly tough meet, although each team has one or two real good runners," stated Coach Mark Cotton.

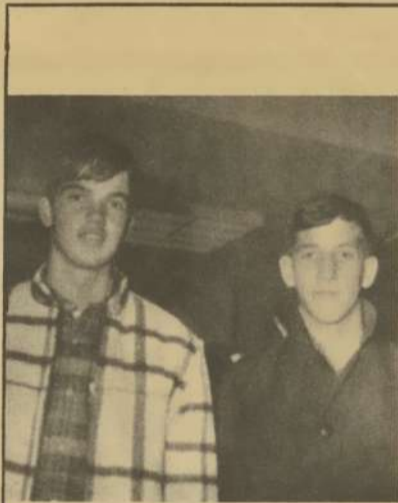

Jefferson, which entered a team consisting of 3 runners in their last meet with Grant, has been bolstered by the return of senior Dan Baker, who led the Demos last year.

Last week's meet against Jackson and Madison provided some changes in the Generals' line-up. Kevin Monson finished second to Jackson's Allen Boyce with a time of 13 minutes, 16 seconds. Kevin is now first man on the squad replacing Bruce McCormach who dropped to fourth. Senior Kirk Breese moved to the second spot.

Shredding the Cleveland defense for a 48-19 victory last week, the Generals bolted into first place as powerful Lincoln drubbed Washington, 24-12, to oust the Colonials from the league's top spot.

Winless Roosevelt will host the Generals at 8 tonight, and being home team appears to be the only advantage the Teddies can claim.

Fine backs June Germany and Junior Hewitt carry the power load for Roosevelt, and from there depth is a major problem.

Fullback Steve Grimsrud and guards Dennis Purcell and Dale Wochnick are more than adequate, but a small bench and lack of experience hurts the Teddies.

In its last outing, Roosevelt was dumped by Rex Putnam of the Metro league, 27-13. Putnam is winless in 3 Metro starts.

Cleveland drew first blood on a 66-yard gallop by Robb Sounce, but from that point it was the Generals' game.

Onia Bates and Bob Ewen sliced through and around the supposedly strong Indian defense and Bates put the game away with 3 third quarter scores.

Girls clash in fund drive . . .

Powder Puff action unfolds today

Junior female football talent will challenge the senior girls in the annual Powder Puff football game this afternoon at 3:30 in the "bowl."

"In past years the Powder Puff game has proven to be exciting. The purpose of the game is to raise money for the United Good Neighbors drive. Donations will be taken throughout the game," commented Dave Dimitre, co-chairman for the event.

Last year $45 was raised for UGN, with the junior girls defeating the seniors, 20-0. Coaches this year are Dan Sullivan for the juniors and Ed Rooney for the seniors.

Timekeeper will be Bill White, and Robert Shewbert and Roy Harrington will referee. Football music will be provided by the pep band, while junior and senior boys act as rally for their respective classes.

The junior teams are:

Team 1—Chris Pru, Jane Luthy, Trudy Walker, Suzie Ferrara, Rae Cass, Marcy Grant, Linda Burd, Annell Phillips, Ellen Dunn, Kathy Olafson and Carol Donnis.

Team 2—Theeta Moore, Sylvia Bond, Margaret Callahan, Debbie Huber, Nancy Lawson, Jane Gustafson, Karen Richey, Heidi Walters, Sherry Holman, Maya Adomovicks, and Molly Harris.

The senior team members:

Team 1—Marilyn Sanders, Pat Martin, Robin Kimball, Kathy Lassley, Gay Pierson, Lorna Viken, Georgina Smith, Terry Lydon, Dianne Darrow, Jeanette Amerson and Doris Dibblee.

Team 2—Michelle Rex, Marilee Hess, Melanie Spiers, Rena Smith, Joanne Kraft, Celestine Stewart, Mary Sue Lindstedt, Carol Stanley and Nancy Kerron.
