

Staff helps select new members for induction into Quill, Scroll

International Quill and Scroll, an honorary journalism society, has been enlarged with the addition of seven new members, according to Willard Mohn, journalism adviser.

New members of Quill and Scroll are Steph Daly, Julie Ferry, Jan Kelley, June Ammon, Lisa Rose, Marlene Feves and Kathy Walton.

These members were selected on the basis of the work they have done in publications. The selection is made from the membership of the Grantonian staff.

Tentative plans for 1968-1969 are being outlined to include in the membership staff members of Memoirs and Hardscrabble, the yearbook and literary magazine. The formula for selection hasn't been worked out due to the lack of continuity of the staff in these publications.

Quill and Scroll has always functioned as an honorary society but plans for the 1968-1969

Student teachers assist, observe duties of faculty

Observing and becoming accustomed to the duties of being a teacher are five college student teachers: Miss Judith Arrell, Raymond Classen, Miss Geraldine Zepher, Mrs. Mirriam Fors and Miss Deanna Woods.

Miss Judith Arrell, Portland State, has been assigned to assist Mrs. Helen Dillon in the English department. Under the guidance of Edward Basaraba, English, is Raymond Classen from the University of Portland. In the physical education department, Miss Geraldine Zepher, Oregon State University, will be supervised by Miss Carolyn Fitzwater.

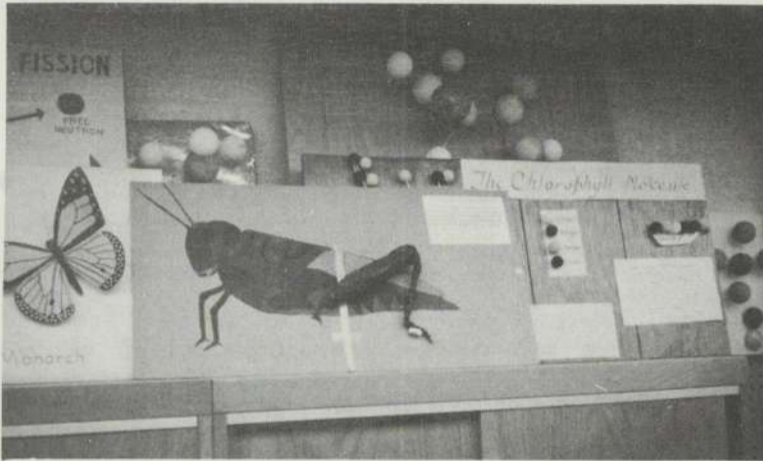

A graduate of St. Olaf College, Mrs. Mirriam Fors is studying for her masters degree at the University of Portland. Mrs. Fors will be learning about the duties of a librarian under the guidance of Miss Dorothy Johnson. Miss Deanna Woods, Portland State College, is now observing the classes of William Baderman.

On February 5 Miss Susan Davis, from Marylhurst College, will begin work as a student teacher of physical education, with the classes of Mrs. Ione Walker.

Assisting Mr. Loren Studer in the lab and with paper work is teacher aid Mrs. Patricia Mc-Avoy.

school year are for the members of Quill and Scroll to operate as a news bureau or public relations staff. Their purpose will be to try to further school and community relations.

Additional members of the society will be nominated in the spring. Formal initiation for the newly elected members will be included in the plans for the combined Memoirs - Grantonian staff dinner to be held in April.

SOME OF THE extra credit subjects done outside of class by biology students include studies of insects, molecular structure and the chlorophyll molecule.

Creativity, originality seen in projects designed by students for extra credit

"It gives the students a chance to show creativity and originality, and to use their hands as well as their heads," stated George Zahn, biology teacher, about the extra credit projects that his "A" and "B" students have made.

Ancient microscopes, photosynthesis, nuclear fission, and a DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid) molecule are some of the aspects of biology shown in three-dimension. Others depict enzymes; grasshoppers; the metamorphosis of a monarch butterfly; and Brownian movement, the aimless motion of particles that are bombarded by others of their own kind.

"I think the students will find it interesting to see what other students do, and it will add a

Memoirs reveals names of 'bests'

Announcement of "Senior Bests" has been revealed by the Memoirs staff. Seventeen areas, from Class Leaders to Most Unusual, were covered.

Choices are as follows: Class Leaders, Liz Streukens and Bob Heldfond; Best Looking, Cammy Coble and George Yerkovich; Most Intelligent, Jane Stilwell and Martin Schnitzer; Friendliest, Nancy Walters and Mike Keavney.

Wittiest are Nancy Rouse and Scott Casey; Cutest Couple, Jodi Cornwell and Don Sorber; Best Artists, Leslie Frey and Reed Literski; Best Vocalists, Christa Collier and Brian McCune; Best Speakers, Jan Nichols and John Luik; Best Actor and Actress, Mollie Grohs and Ron Brown; Best Journalist, Cec O'Rourke; and Most Enthusiastic, Anita Austin and Francis Kessler.

Completing the list are: Most Unusual, Jeanne Bussing and Tom Zell; Most Athletic, Judy Shaw and Bruce McCormach; Craftiest, Karen O'dell, Mary Birkeland and Karstin Musæus; Best Build and Figure, Debbie Beach and Mike Hill, and Best Instrumentalists, Charlene Cessells and Ron Marrs.

Annual valentine contest held

Special deliveries of Valentines will be made to reg. rooms February 14 but what they will look like remains to be seen.

Monday is the deadline for entries in the annual "Design the Valentine" contest held each year by the Girls' league, in order to obtain unique and outstanding designs for the Valentines that will be sold and distributed to students February 14.

"Three or four winners will in the reg. rooms. Dressed in red tights, red bows, and other in-fashion styles, the girls will attempt to sing whatever message be selected from the entries by a panel of judges," explained Mrs. Helen Kappler, Girls' league advisor.

Each winning designer will receive a heart-shaped box of candy or perhaps a record album," stated Jean Yakymi, Girls' league secretary. Winners will also have their designs printed on the two—three hundred Valentines which Girls' league will sell at two for five cents.

Singing Valentines will highlight distribution day. According to Jean, a few girls will select several Valentines at random and deliver them musically is written on the back of the cards they select, while a captive reg. room audience listens on.

Last year there were about twenty-five entries but only about twenty have been submitted so far this year. Both boys and girls may enter and should put their entries in the entry box in the office. "We could use a lot more entries," commented Jean.

Girls' league themselves will print the Valentines in various sizes and shapes on their new printing machine. This year the designs and lettering will be done on white paper in either black or red ink.

Dinner scheduled for Honor Society

Oriental lanterns will provide atmosphere for the annual National Honor society Chinese dinner to be held February 21 in the cafeteria.

New junior commissioners will be announced at the dinner. According to Mrs. Doris Hanlon, NHS adviser, new commissioners are chosen twice yearly, in February and again in June for the following school year.

The only qualification for being selected as commissioner is membership in NHS.

Faculty members on the dinner's guest list are Miss Dorothy Johnson, Miss Katherine Calouri, NHS alumnae, and Gerald Merryman. Dave Licton is program chairman.

HAIRCUTS:

Adults $1.50

Children $1.25

TONY'S BARBER SHOP
3445 N.E. BROADWAY

Smart Indians Taught Them "How"

Authentic in every detail. Butter-soft upper leathers wrap around your foot—Indian style. Hand-sewn fronts, too. You'll go for the look of these genuine moccasins and you'll save because they'll stand up to rough wear. Colors? The coolest!
A WORTHMORE SHOE...$15.95

FLORSHEIM SHOE SHOP

1105 LLOYD CENTER
BY THE ICE RINK

YOUR BANK AMERICARD WELCOME HERE

VALENTINE'S DAY IS COMING!

Don't Forget Your Sweetheart

COME SEE OUR COMPLETE SELECTION OF VALENTINE CARDS AND PARTY SUPPLIES

THE MARDI GRAS PARTY SHOP

OPEN WEEK NITES 'TIL 9 PM
PHONE 282-7715

陳氏廚房

MR. AND MRS. LELAND CHIN

Chin's Kitchen

4132 N.E. BROADWAY
PORTLAND, OREGON
Original Chinese Food To Go
281-1203