G-Men stop Lincoln 27-20

by Gary Cogill

"It wasn't one of our better meets," commented Coach Robert Shewbert after the varsity wrestling team handed Lincoln a 27-20 loss in the Lincoln gym last Friday night.

The grapplers withstood a strong Lincoln team and gained vital points from pins. Getting the pins were David Gray at 141 lbs., and Larry Yakimi at 178 lbs. Both David and Larry pinned their opponents in the first round.

Gaining decisions against their opponents were Merle Johnson at 98 lbs., Bill Curry at 136 lbs., Mike Rienecker at 148 lbs., and Ray Denfeld at 168 lbs. Ward Bruner was the only wrestler with a forfeit.

So far this year the varsity squad boasts an over-all record of ten wins and two losses. Corvallis and North Bend are the only teams that have beaten the Generals thus far this season. The league record as of last Monday was four wins and no losses.

Coach White's second team varsity and unattached to be proud of and unmatched by anyone this season. They have a record of twelve wins and no losses as of last Monday.

"Nielsen's Animals" has been the name given for the freshman team coached by Tom Nielsen. They are undefeated this year and their closest match was a 33-25 win over Lincoln, preceding the varsity match last Friday night. Pinning their opponents were Billy Dyer at 157 lbs., Bob Whitaker at 120 lbs., and Mark Johnson at 95 lbs.

Cagers sweep past Lincoln; ready for cross division play

by Bruce Fishback

Rolling up 77 points in 32 minutes of playing time, the varsity cagers swept past a weak Lincoln team by 46 points in action last Friday.

By downing the Cardinals the Generals increased their league record to 4-0, and their season record to 10-0. This win kept the Generals even with the Madison Senators in a tie for the Green Division lead which was broken last Tuesday when the G-Men met the Senators on the Madison court.

Holding a 30 point lead after three quarters the Generals let loose during the fourth and surged in 29 points to the Cardinals' nine to increase their lead to 46 points and a final score of 77-31.

Mike Naylor gained 14 points to lead the team in a game which showed 11 G-Men gaining points. Close behind Naylor were Don Lincoln, Bill Flowers, and Artie Wilson, all of whom scored in the double figures.

The high scoring and a good defense kept the Generals on top from the first. The cagers allowed only 15 points to be scored against them during the first half and only 16 during the second.

Five members of the team scored more than Lincoln's high scorer and two members tallied the same as him.

Tonight the Generals face Wilson as cross division play begins. The Trojans stand 2-2 in their league. The Trojans were ranked in the top of their league but have been dropped twice.

Tuesday the Generals meet Jackson who has surprised the league by dumping all opponents in the Red Division.

Girls' basketball tops; look for first city title

An optimistic view is held by Miss Carolyn Fitzwater about her girls basketball team. The team is a member of the interscholastic basketball league which is sponsored by the Park Bureau. The league runs for six weeks and incorporates schools from all over the Portland Metropolitan area.

There have been 35 girls turning out for basketball this year and they are split into two teams. The number one team will play Catlin Gabel Tuesday and then return Thursday to compete with Madison, at Madison.

"Madison, Marshall, and Grant are usually the three top teams in the league and if we can beat Madison and Marshall we will probably take the league championship," stated Miss Fitzwater.

The girls selected for the number one team are: Laurie Hun-ner, Shari Horning, Kathy Eckroth, Betty Woodward, Sharyl Swope, Diane Schwitzer, Sherrie Powell, and Lilly Seiner. The number two team will be coached by Mrs. Susan Davis.
