Iko Tanaka bids farewell; 'hard to think of souvenir'

"There are so many things around here that are made in Japan, that it is hard to think what I will take back with me as a souvenir," laughed our American Field Service exchange student Yoriko Tanaka, as she answered questions about her leaving to go home to Tokyo. IKO WILL be leaving Portland on June 29, but before she leaves the United States she will visit Denver, Colorado, in order to attend an AFS conference there. She will then go to San Francisco, and leave from there for Tokyo.

When she returns home, Iko plans to attend Expo '70, and then go to summer school, because she feels that she will be far behind in her Japanese studies and doesn't want to have too much difficulty catching up in September. She will graduate from her all-girl high school in March and then go to college, where she plans to study either Sociology or Psychology. She hasn't decided on her after-college plans yet.

"THERE ARE so many things that I liked about Portland, that it's hard to name just a few, but I especially enjoyed Mt. Hood, Sauvie's Island and seeing the Lovejoy Fountain," commented Iko. She has been living with our AFS returnee from India, senior Barbara Chatten, and her family, and added that she will miss them very much.

About AFS Iko said, "We all feel like brothers and sisters to each other, no matter what country we're from . . . and the neatest thing is that we all try to understand each other using only one language . . . English."

Iko was a member of National Honor Society, French Club and the Japanese Club here at Grant, besides being active in the AFS activities and working hard on the AFS assembly held last month.

As a parting comment Iko said, "I wish to thank everyone at Grant for all they've done, for I've had a wonderful and rewarding time here; every day has been fun and a new experience, because so many things happen. I hope to return back here to visit again as soon as I can."

Princess Cindy tells activities of Festival season

by Chris Hawes

"Everyone is so nice! We all are just ourselves," are sentiments expressed by Cindy Walden, proud bearer of the title of a Rose Festival Princess.

CINDY HAS been caught up in a whirl of Festival activities including luncheons, trips across the state, and a visit to Governor Tom McCall.

One of the highlights of Cindy's reign as Princess was a trip to Central Oregon all the princesses took May 19-20. The thirteen girls left Portland at 7:30, and went straight to Timberline Lodge for breakfast.

KA-NEE-TA was the next place the princesses visited. After a refreshing rest, the girls then went to Bend, and then on to Sun River to spend the night.

On the last day of the trip, the girls made a visit to Boulder Dam on the Colorado River, and also to Salem to see the Governor. The girls arrived back in town last Wednesday evening.

ONE OF Cindy's favorite subjects is the discussion of her wardrobe which she wears to all the Festival activities. This includes five outfits, a raincoat, and of course the formal Cindy is to wear the night of the Coronation. Among her outfits is a casual culotte and jacket ensemble. It is peach in color. Cindy's formal, like all the other girls', is pink. It is sleeveless, and has a sash that extends from four buttons along the collar, and down the back.

"EVERYTHING coordinates together," Cindy stated. "They sure look nice and we have gotten many nice compliments about them."

The girls have participated in two parades already, the St. Johns' Booster parade, and the Gateway parade.

CINDY WALDEN

"On May 25, we went to a luncheon at the Gresham Chamber of Commerce, and instead of sitting altogether, we sat among the people," explained Cindy. "It was really great! I loved talking to everyone, and hearing them say how great Grant was."

"I am to be first at the Coronation. I want just everyone to come as it will mean so much more to me if the school is there behind me," Cindy remarked. "Everywhere I go, a lot of people ask which girl is from Grant, not because they know me, but they know our great reputation. Some of the businessmen I meet at luncheons and other activities that have graduated from Grant say it was the best, is the best, and always will be the best! I am proud to see my name next to the name of my school—Grant! We are the best!"
