

arts

Play depicts young man's dreams

Photos by Sam Baer

Christie (Mike Aronson) stifles Allen (Tom Boschart) during scene from CCRT's production of "Play It Again, Sam" this last weekend.

A special showing of "Play It Again, Sam," Clackamas County Repertory Theatre's (CCRT) winter play, will be shown Thursday, Feb. 2 at 8 p.m. in the College's McLoughlin Theatre.

Associated Student Government (ASG) bought out the entire house for that evening and are selling, to Clackamas Community College students only, tickets for $1.

"This is to give CCC students a break, to see the play and support the theatre department," said Hallie Brown, ASG activities director.

"People other than students can pick up tickets over at ASG for that night and pay the general admission price of $3," said Jim Roberts, director of student activities.

Terry Timmen studies his part as Allen Felix for his upcoming performance in "Play It Again, Sam." Timmen has been active in other plays including CCRT's "Spoon River Anthology" last spring.

Play special feature

The Clackamas Quarterly Review

Community Features

Literary Review

Arts

Fiction

Interviews

and Fun Stuff

FIRST ISSUE AVAILABLE THIS TERM

