XI, No. 16

Inside

The College has finally go-ahead for the jogging trail system.
is hoped that the trails will be completed by the end of June this year.
How long will it be? Why did it take so long? For the story, see page 3.

Fred Heard, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was on campus last Thursday.
His views on schools and students, and his plans if he is elected are in the story on page 2.

The biology classes' recent field trip to the Washington Park Zoo to observe the primates left many with a feeling of disenchantment with the conditions of the monkeys' habitat. Story and pictures on page 11.

The College spends about $2,000 each year to fund student government meetings to CCOSAC meetings. What is CCOSAC and what do they do? See page

Every term students get one or two days off while faculty and staff participate in staff development days. What is staff development? See page 5.

Modern dance classes are preparing for their production of "Peter, Peter, Rumpkin Eater" which they will be performing on March 8. For pictures, see page 7.
