

Baseball,
hot dogs,
apple pie
and ...

Left: John Kline collides with Lane catcher to score a run while Ed Leniger watches from sideline. Far left: Jim Coffman prepares to release his fast ball. Middle left: Wayne Snoderly kicks up dirt while checking the location of the ball as he passes third on his way home. Top: Cougar player hits the dirt and slides home to touch base on a play he thought to be close although Lane's catcher is still waiting for the ball. Above: Wayne Snoderly munches down on a hotdog (what else would a baseball player eat?) between games at last Saturday's double header.
