

the print

Clackamas Community College

Vol XII, No. 16

Wednesday, Feb. 14, 1979

What's inside

Holocaust

Read about racial annihilation on Page 4 as the Print previews a spring term class to be taught by Dr. Donald Epstein, College history instructor, dealing with Holocaust.

Darvin Trammal

A freshman wrestler's view of training, weight control and eating are exposed on Page 7.

Men's Resource Center

Accomplishments and future program goals about the College's Men's Resource Center are discussed on Page 4. The Center is advised by Grace Fitzgerald, counselor.

Food affair

A creative affair with food is displayed on Page 5 that takes you through a luscious-land of chicken, salads and pastry.

Heart Boosters

I love you. That's what students and faculty are saying on Page 8 in a special Valentine's Day classified section.

Cupid season

Cupid may recommend moonlight and roses for a Valentine's Day setting, but this couple appears just as content to share an umbrella for a quiet walk in the rain. Photo by Kelly Laughlin.

CLACKAMAS COMMUNITY
COLLEGE ARCHIVES

