sports

Baseballers split six

Of The Print

In six games last week the Clackamas Baseball team picked up three wins, including two in league, while finally showing an ability to slug the

On Wednesday CCC swept a double-header from visiting Blue Mountain Community Blue Mountain Community College, then took off for Mt.
Hood where they split. Saturday the Cougars dropped a twin-bill to first place LinnBenton Community College.
Against Blue Mountain
Clackamas used the two-hit pitching of Dave Coghill and the one-hit pitching of Mike

the one-hit pitching of Mike Colka to pin down the wins. In the first game Coghill had a nohitter going into the seventh but then gave up two straight hits and a few walks as Blue Mountain got all four of their runs in that inning. It wasn't enough however as Clackamas won 8-

The Cougars got five of their runs in the second on six straight hits, three straight doubles by Grady Gassner, Don Meyers and Jeff McCall and then two singles by Monty Zwicker and Brad Lehrer. Kelly Sutton finished off the rally with a double. McCall hit a solo homer in the third to extend the Cougars to a 6-0 lead. CCC got one in the fourth and fifth to finish off the scoring.

On the mound Coghill struck out nine batters while giving up five walks

In the second game Colka whiffed five and walked two in gaining the shutout win 4-0. Clackamas got all four of their tallies in the fifth inning highlighted by a two run double by Kevin Barry.

Barry put on a torrid hitting performance Thursday at Mt. Hood as he doubled, tripled and homered in the first game and then hit a three-run homer

Clackamas knocked off the host team in game one 6-4 but was unable to pull it out in the second losing 11-8. In the fifth inning of the first game Gassner came in with the score 6-4 and two outs to relieve Sutton who had relieved starter Jim Schriber. With two men on base Gassner walked the first batter he faced and then fanned the next to end the inning. In the last two innings Gassner pitched flawlessly to pick up the

In game two, CCC led early but was unable to hold it as Mt. Hood came back and led 8-3. Barry then hit his three-run shot in the sixth while CCC put across a single run beforehand to cut the margin to one 8-7. In the bottom of the sixth however the hosts put across three more runs to ice the victory. CCC got one run in the seventh. Mike Venneri got the

on the mound for Clackamas

Saturday at Linn-Benton the Cougars could manage only one hit in the first game which they lost 10-0. Don Meyers singled to avoid being no-hit. Jim Schriber took the loss for Clackamas

In Saturday's last game, eight runs in the second inning put CCC in a hole which they couldn't climb out of. Linnin the third to extend the to 9-0. CCC got all five of scores in the fifth but it enough as they fell 9-5 Northcutt went three for to pace the Cougars Gassner and Dave Charl ded run-scoring d Coghill took the defeat hill for CCC

The Cougars are now

Women netters suffer from inexperience

Bu Mark McNearu Of The Print

Lower Columbia College, Washington, and Chemeketa Community College proved to be too much for the inexperienced Cougar women's tennis team last ladies dropped both matches, 2-7 and 0-6.

The Cougs started their young season off right at Lower Columbia as Debbie Copher won the initial singles match 7-5, 6-2 over Lisa Davis. But the win wasn't to carry over into the rest of the matches as CCC dropped the next five in singles and then the first two doubles matches before finally ending with a win.

In the second singles match, Sherrie Stanley gave Shelly Ur so of Columbia a run for her money before falling 4-6, 6-7, while in the third, Julie Bausserman gave way to Kelly Milosevich 1-6, 0-6. Nancy Fernandez drubbed CCC Sandy Carter 0-6, 2-6 in four-th singles while Sheila Imdieke Shelly McNeel fell to Marian Milosevich and Rhonda Harat, respectively, of Lower Columbia's Harat, the Cougar match between McNeel and columbia's Harat, the Cougar representative played her counterpart to an almost even draw but lost a very close match, 4-6, 7-5, 5-7

Gladys Michael was not overly concerned about the loss as she pointed to the league encounter as a le experience.

"In the non-league mit's going to be hard to point our strengths weaknesses because I try ten people and get then experience," she said. "
around with the line-up those kind of matches.

In the doubles match sus Lower Columbia Cougars picked up the other victory of the Debbie Bugarsky and Stanley defeated Milosevich and Rhonda 6-2, 7-5. The first and doubles matches wh cluded the Cougar te Debbie Copher and Bolin, and Carrie Bro and Julia Chitty, were frosting on the Columbia as they dropp hosts in straight sets.

In Thursday's league Chemeketa served their an easy 6-0 victory unsuspecting Cougs. Co five singles matches a doubles while the close came to victory was a 3 loss by first singles Copher to the Chiefs Kerr. "Our team weakness be the inability to retu services effectively," said. "We just got bel couldn't play our way

Netmen pair sweep

By Brian Rood

Of The Print

It may rain a bit in Oregon but the sun shines bright for the CCC men's tennis team. Cougars were all but perfect in matches last week, downing Chemeketa Community 8-1 in the league opener on Thursday and coming back on Friday to gain a non-conference over Concordia by the identical score.

In Thursday's match, the Cougs were paced by the outstanding play of number-one Tim Qualls and also received a valiant effort from number-two man Dave Long. Qualls defeated Ted Lindquist, who is the highest returning finisher from the region. Qualls over Linquist in the first set 7-6 and came back in the second set to blank his Chemeketa opponent 6-0. At number two singles, Dave Long spotted Chemeketa's Duke Schienle one set before he came back to capture a three-set victory 1-6, 6-2,6-4

Coach Taylor commented on Chemeketa noting, "from understand what we Chemeketa should be competitive in the state match.

Then if one and still makes two the Cougs should be right in the thick of things by the time the state tournament rolls around. "Even though we won handily, I was disappointed in our number one doubles, Long and Qualls have been really inconsistent I really thought we would be strong here,' Taylor match Chemeketa also saw the return of Steve Anast who has been sidelined with a back injury Anast who was the pre-season number one singles man for the Cougar netmen won handily at three number against Chemeketa 6-0, 6-1. "His back was still sore but he should be able to play in the one, two, or three position," Taylor said.

In Friday's non-league match over Concordia, it looked like a plea of no contest as the Cougs crushed their opponents 8-1

Oh Thank Heavens for 7 Days OPEN ELEVEN a Week 24 HOURS * Fountain Service * **Featuring the Big Gulp** * Hot to Go ********** * Cold to Go *Beverages * Groceries * One hot One not * Beer $1.39 and $1.29 ****** ** Plus Imported Beer ** Assorted Pastries and Hot Coffee for your Morning Delight 7th & Washington Oregon City Wednesday, April 11, 1979

36 12 65 643 48,57 44,26 55 56 70 82 91.51 36 92 40 97 50 11 (A) 72 11 11 11 43,51 13,51 14,51 1