Lane Community College proved to be too much last weekend in Albany as they outpointed their nearest competitor, Linn-Benton Community College 81-62 enroute to an Oregon Community College Athletic Association victory.

"Lane was just a little too powerful for the rest of the field," Clackamas coach Les Tipton said after his squad came in third with a score of 47 1/2. "They always have more depth than anyone else and they were expected to win."

Clackamas, however was not without its bright spots in the meet. Mark Allen finished a strong first in the 10,000 meter event, missing the national qualifying mark by only twenty seconds.

"Mark started the day very well," Tipton said. "He ran an outstanding 10,000 meters and that race is one which takes an awful lot of long distance conditioning to compete in respectively. It's the equivalent of six miles and that's pretty good time to run six miles," said Tipton of Allen's 32:48.7 time, over a minute better than the second place finisher.

Tipton also pointed to Dave Rudishauser's performance in the half mile event as better than average. Rudishauser finished second to Lane's Lynn Mayo, a participant in the nationals last year.

"Dave finished about two steps behind Mayo and that's pretty good," he said. "He was outstanding."

Greg and Jeff Forell also did fine jobs according to Tipton and the coach mentioned Jeff's effort in the triple jump in particular.

"Jeff was outstanding," he said. "He took first place from a real strong band of Linn-Benton jumpers while also competing well in the long jump."

Jeff finished first in the triple with a jump of 42' 5" while coming in second in the long with a leap of 20' 9 1/4" just an inch off the first place mark set by Linn-Benton's entrant. Brother Greg captured a fourth place in the long.

In other events Randy Bolliger once again took home first place honors in the shot put by besting Lane's Rick Bailey 49' 10 1/2" to 49' 8 1/2". Randy Jackson came in third in that event while also capturing second in the discus. Bailey of Lane took the event with a heave of 154' 6", 4' 11" better than Jackson's toss.

In the 440 relay Clackamas finished third behind Linn-Benton and Lane. The Cougars had a time of 45.6 in the event, .5 off Lane's second place time.

Jim Holmes dropped a foot off his school record of the previous week by vaulting only 13 feet in the event. Holmes came in third in that event, which was won by Linn-Benton's Annicker.

Dan Cobine finished fourth in the 1,500 meters while Mike Murphy tossed the javelin 198' 8" for a third place. In the 5,000 meters Cobine came in second to the Lane entrant with a time of 15:36, six seconds off the first place time.

In the mile relay Clackamas came in, once again, second to Lane but only 2.1 seconds off the pace. Lane finished with a time of 3:29.5 to CCC's 3:31.4.

"We were down a little," Tipton said of his team's performance. "We weren't worrying too much and I thought we'd do a little bit better but we didn't do exactly as we'd planned."

"This weekend I expect to get some real good efforts in the individual events, however," Tipton continued. "Also we've got some good relay teams and we're gonna go after the whole ball of wax."

The "ball of wax" Tipton speaks of is the one waiting for them at Mt. Hood in Gresham where CCC will participate in the annual open relays.

The Clackamas golf team traveled to Albany last Wednesday to compete at the Springhill Golf Club. The Cougars finished fourth overall with a total score of 223 strokes. Central Oregon topped the team scoring with 294, followed by Chemeketa, 300, Treasure Valley, 316, Clackamas, Linn-Benton Community College, 324, and OSU's JV's who tallied 328.

"We're still not playing well," Coach Jim Hudson said after his team's showing in the tournament.

The Cougars were led by Steve McPherson who shot 74 to trail Bob Goetze of Chemeketa who won the first place honors. Other CCC scores included Randy Reid, 82, Gordon Kloczkowski, 82, and Kevin Bigler, 85.

CCC's duffers will perform on their home course Thursday at Arrowhead Golf Club in Mulino when they host a league match.

Track

This Saturday the men's and women's track teams will travel to Mt. Hood Community College to compete in the open meet there. The teams will compete in the annual relays there in Gresham.

Tennis

On Thursday, the men's tennis team will be at home against Multnomah School of the Bible and will then host Willamette on Friday. Saturday the Cougars are once again at home as they face Central Oregon Community College before facing Lane Community in Eugene next Tuesday.

CCC's women netters are scheduled to play Lane Community College in Eugene Friday before coming home Saturday to battle Central Oregon. Next Tuesday the women will face Concordia in Portland.

Baseball

Clackamas' baseball team is slated to play Umpqua Community College at home Saturday before facing Lane Community in Eugene next Tuesday.

Gain confidence

Racquetwomen taste victory

With two wins under their belt and with it added confidence, the Clackamas women's tennis team will hit the road this week ready to take on anything they may encounter.

Last Wednesday the Cougars picked up their first win of the still-young season by defeating Concordia College of Portland on the Cougars' home ground, 5-

1. The win was especially sweet for the women as most of their victories were picked up in the singles matches, an area in which the Cougars were desperately hurting in previous matches.

Debbie Copher, first singles player, Sherry Stanley, Carrie Browning and Julie Bolen all picked up singles wins while the doubles team of Lisa Chitty and Browning stung Concordia for a victory in that division.

After suffering a brief setback Friday at the hands of Blue Mountain, the Cougars proved their win was no fluke by coming back and trouncing Umpqua Community College on Saturday in Roseburg, 6-0.

Once again the CCC team surprised themselves by winning all of their singles matches. Stanley defeated her opponent, 9-8, while Debbie Bugarsky won, 8-6, Browning, 8-3, Chitty, 8-3, and Browning and Chitty, 8-4 in doubles. Stanley and Bugarsky also picked up a doubles win by the score of 8-5. Clackamas had little trouble in picking up the league win which featured one-set matches.

Thank You!

I would like to thank everyone who was so thoughtful of me while I was in the hospital. The cards, flowers, phone calls and visits have been a big moral booster while recuperating. I am very grateful to you all. Hope to see you soon.

Sincerely,
Bill Tuor
