

Costumed muppets caper

Halloween time is greatly looked forward to by little kids, as was the Children's Halloween party Saturday afternoon. But although it is reputed to be a scary event, very few of the muppets—even the ghosts and vampires—managed to invoke many chills. The effect could be called charming, though. It seemed as if hundreds of ballerinas, bunnies, mummies and princesses were circulating through the Community Center Mall, along with other interesting individuals.

The event was sponsored by Community Services. Provided were movies and entertainment promoting Halloween spirit in kids of all ages.

Musicians, pantomime billed for coffeehouse

Country folk duo will return to campus

Folk and country singers Dennis Doyle and Jim Britton will make a return visit to the College at the coffee house

Nov. 7, at 8 p.m. The return visit comes after their hit album and grand tour of colleges throughout the northwest.

The duo's first album, "Chanticlear," was greeted by universal applause while gracing dozens of radio stations in the area. Stories have been done on the two by the "Sunday Morning" and "Evening" TV shows. They have played college campuses across the Northwest and have played here last year.

The coffee house, which has been designated "Family Night," starts at 7 p.m. in the McLoughlin Theatre with a one-hour performance by one of the best pantomimes in the state, David Immel.

"If you ever wanted to see a good mime in action, don't miss David," encouraged Roby Robinson of the drama department. "He's one of the best mimes in the Northwest."

After the mime, the activities move to the Fireside Lounge where Dennis Doyle and Jim Britton will play from 8 to 11 p.m.

Mime will demonstrate his art form

Mime, David Immel will be featured in the College's McLoughlin Theatre this Wednesday evening. His performance will precede the coffeehouse taking place the same evening.

Immel's combination of his style with those of Letienne Decroux and Marcal Marceau, have a unique result.

He has been described to create an interpersonal relationship with the audience which stretches beyond the bounds of contemporary mime attitudes.

Big band soon

The mood has been set for the Fall term Big Band Ball. As always, LeRoy Anderson's 12 piece band, "The Rhythm Section," will be featured. The attire will be semi-formal.

Dinner is at 8 p.m. and dancing will begin at 9 p.m. continuing until midnight. The dinner will take place in the College's Community Center, Saturday.

Reservations are being taken at 656-2631, ext.245. Admission is $9 per person, dinner-dance, $4 per person, dance only.

The Big Band Ball is sponsored each term by the Associated Student Government.

Immel toured professionally with the "Checkered Comedy Mime Troupe," at West Coast colleges and universities from 1974 to 1976.

He has more recently performed with the local mime, Scott McKay. They have been seen at various high schools and colleges from 1976 to 1978.

Currently Immel performs solo mime acts and gives instructional mime training in schools, institutions and civic functions. He is known for performances at "Art Quake," the Lloyd Center Shopping Mall, The Firehouse Theater, KATU television, The Portland Art Museum, and the Galleria.
