

Simon surprises Mrs. Drudge, as Moon and Birdboot actively observe.

Two plots combine; create irony and comedy

Along with finals week, and Christmas vacation, the end of Fall Term means something else at the College. The Fall play.

"The Real Inspector Hound" will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. There will also be a matinee this Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

This play is a witty, but mocking satire on murder mysteries. It involves two drama critics, Birdboot and Moon sitting in a theater reviewing an old-fashioned mystery melodrama.

Eventually the two plots—the critics, and the melodrama—entwine until both become involved with the action.

The role of Birdboot has been changed to Roderick Wyatt. The role of "Hound" will be taken by David-Smith-English.

"Moon" is played by Randy Evans, "Simon", Franklin Morris; "Magnus"; James Nicodemus; "Felicity," Sheila Crocker; "Cynthia," Gail Taylor; "Mrs. Drudge," Lisa Kaser; "Radio Voice," Deena Brown.

Admission will be $2 for students, $3 for adults. It's free for College students with a current student body card.
