

Outstanding sophs win scholarships

Five students recently won Outstanding Sophomore Tuition Scholarships from the College.

I. Williams, Sandy Carter, Maureen Poitras and Calvin Smith won the scholarships on the basis of having cumulative grade point averages of at least 2.5, and being second-year students. Applicants had to have at least 36 credit hours at the College. Each applicant also went through a personal interview.

The scholarships were designed to recognize and encourage academic achievement and community service for sophomores attending the College.

Students capped

Thirty-three nursing students will be capped in a traditional candlelight ceremony Dec. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in McLoughlin Hall.

Guest speakers will be on hand.

The ceremony is private with only the students and close family attending.
