

"When you go into a car dealer you can explain what's wrong without going into a lot of gyrations..."--Holly King

Page 7

Page 6 (clockwise from top)
VITAL STATS--Many of the women in the seminar took detailed notes for future reference.
UNDER THE HOOD--Women peer intently into the workings of the engine while George Warren explains the function of basic parts.
ANXIOUS TO LEARN--Elsie Gough spends a moment chatting before class. "I have a hunch that I'm the oldest one here," she confided.
CHALK TALK--Ron Watts explains the various weights and functions of motor oils to the class.

Page 7 (clockwise from top)
FULL HOUSE--Ron Watts lectures class of forty-four women in second auto maintenance seminar.
CLOSE INSPECTION--Auto student takes a hard look at air filter as instructor George Warren elaborates on important areas and part in auto maintenance.
THOUGHTFUL DISCOURSE--Instructor George Warren elaborates on important areas and part in auto maintenance.
HANDS ON LEARNING--Evonne DeGraffenried discusses finer points of changing tire with instructor Ron Watts and fellow students.

Story and photos by Duffy Coffman

