

Historical Houses of Oregon City

stronghold of architectural art-
the oldest established city it and house many of the state's buildings.
Percival, Fred DeWolfe and Historical Society.

THE HACKETT HOUSE, (above) an example of the Stick Style of building, is reminiscent of Gothic architecture.

THE HUNTLEY HOUSE, (below) home of one of Oregon City's first merchants is a classic example of Queen Anne's style of architecture.

River but in 1909 it was dredged and towed up the hill to sit on 7th street.

