

Lip Sync contest

AC/DC performs at College

A CLASH OF GUITARS, two members of the Pat Travers band exchange vibes during last Wednesday's performance.

Who would ever believe that AC/DC would do a concert here at Clackamas Community College?

Well, it happened at the Feb. 2 Lip Sync Contest. Each term the Associated Student Government sponsors the contest and awards prizes to the best bands.

This term an error was made in the voting process and three bands ended up with a $75 first prize.

AC/DC, Pat Travers and Night Ranger received two votes each and tied for first.
