Soccer team record even at 2 wins, 2 losses

With only a quarter of the way through the league play and with 12 games remaining, Clackamas Community College's soccer team's record stands at two wins and two losses.

Last Wednesday, Oct. 3, the team played Lower Columbia for their first home game. Clackamas won 4 to 1.

Friday night the team travelled to Seattle to meet their challenger, Everett Community College, for a game on Saturday. After a tough workout, Everett slipped past Clackamas by a score of 2 to 1.

"It was a tough loss. One good thing coming out of this game was the improved teamwork," third-year player Steve Enos said.

Due to the absense of Scott

Galloway, the line up was switched around, slowing the team down some. Also, Rick Townsend was red-carded the first half. The goal for Clackamas was scored during the first half by Brian Gorsek. With one man short the second half, Clackamas dominated the game but, unfortunately, did not score. Everett scored their two goals during the first half.

On Wednesday, Oct. 10, the team plays Steilacoom Community College in Tacoma, then on the following Saturday they will host Green River for the second home game at 1 p.m.

Correction

In the Oct. 3 issue of The Print it was incorrectly reported the men's soccer team lost to Lane Community College by a score of 0-7. The actual score was Clackamas losing by a score of 0-4. The Print regrets any inconvenience this error may have caused.

Siler, Schrader make up women's cross country

Women's Cross Country Coach Marilyn Wynia won't have her hands full with a team this year, since she only has two women runners to coach.

Clackamas Community College sophomore Julie Siler and freshman Mo Schrader are the only two women runners participating in cross country this year. Wynia explained last year's team consisted of mainly sophomores, who have since graduated, hence the small turnout. She also said the decrease in the College's enrollment probably helped to limit the amount of participants.

Since cross country needs at least five people to constitute a team, the best Wynia's runners can do is score individually. Their last meet took them to the Willamette Invitational in Salem, and it was there the duo was met with both good and bad results.

Siler and Schrader both competed in the 5,000 meters, and it was in that event Wynia said Siler ran "probably one of her best times all year." Siler finished with a time of 19:07, respectively, and she placed 42nd.

Just how serious Schrader's injury is Wynia can't say at this time. She said Schrader is resting now, and she could possibly run in their next meet which will be at the Mt. Hood Invitational in Gresham on Oct. 13.

Schrader, however, was not so fortunate. Wynia said she had just completed the first mile of the 5,000 meters when she stepped in a hole and twisted her knee. Schrader managed to finish the race, and came in at 22:21, respectively. She placed 108th.

As for the goals of the two runners, Wynia said Siler "stands a good chance" of finishing in the top 10 and Regionals. Schrader's goal for now is to run healthy, and Wynia said if she tries hard enough she could finish in the top 20 at Regionals.

Since Siler has more running experience than Schroder, Wynia said she stands a better chance of placing higher at Regionals. "Julie's a seasoned runner. She's not really a 5,000 meter runner yet, but she's in a little bit better shape than Mo is," she added.

LISTEN TO THIS:

There IS an alternative to compulsory military service. If you have moral, ethical, or religious objections to participation in any war or military training, you can be a conscientious objector. One can be a CO regardless of one's religion: an agnostic or atheist can make a CO claim based on deeply held, personal beliefs. The Central Committee for Conscientious Objectors is an organization engaged in a nation-wide effort to inform people about Conscientious objection and related peace issues.

We are also registering conscientious objectors with our CO card. This card simply states: "Because of my beliefs about war, I am opposed to participation in the military." Should the draft be reinstated, and this is becoming increasingly likely, a CO card could provide important documentation of your status as an objector. For more information, write to:
