

Sports

Szanto to protest Edmonds game decision

By Christine Warner
Of The Print

Clackamas Community College Soccer Coach Janos Szanto will write a letter of protest to the soccer league regarding the team's game against Edmonds Community College last Saturday.

The game is under protest because of the fact that after Clackamas had received and scored a goal on a penalty kick, the referee changed his mind after evaluating the goal with a sidelinesman.

Brian Gorsek, starter, said there was a hole in the net where the ball went through, which raised the question of whether or not the goal should be counted. All players admitted the ball was in, even those on the Edmonds team.

Gorsek scored the first goal and was out later in the first half because of an injury. The score was 1-1 at the half. Then Edmonds scored another goal in the first part of the second half, making the score 1-2.

Then Clackamas scored the penalty kick, but the referee called it back, leaving the score 1-2. Before the end of the game one player and two starters for Clackamas were out due to two injuries and one red-card.

The team's next game is today against Linn-Benton Community College in Albany at 7 p.m.

COACH JANOS SZANTO (center) watches Steve Enos (far right) maneuver with the ball.

Running duo head for final x-country meet

By Rodney Fobert
Of The Print

With one more meet to go, Marilyn Wynia, girls cross country coach, has great confidence in her runners. Only two girls make up the women's cross country team, Julie Siler and Mo Schrader, but they have done quite well as individual competitors for Clackamas.

On Oct. 20, the girls competed at the Highline Community College Meet. Leading Cougar runner Siler placed second in the meet with a time of 20:18. Schrader, still troubled by a knee injury, finished 24th at 32:50.

On Oct. 27 the Regional Championships, which included all Oregon community colleges, was held. Siler crossed the finish line in third place at 19:23, and Schrader placed 19th with a time of 24:18.

The final meet is the Northwest Athletic Association of Community College (NW AACC) Championship in Spokane, Wash., on Nov. 9. Community Colleges from both Oregon and Washington will participate.

"If Julie (Siler) puts her mind to it, she can win," Coach Wynia said when asked how the girls would do. Wynia added Schrader is battling knee problems which makes it difficult for her to run up to her full potential.

LISTEN TO THIS:

There IS an alternative to compulsory military service. If you have moral, ethical, or religious objections to participation in any war or military training, you can be a conscientious objector. One can be a CO regardless of one's religion: an agnostic or atheist can make a CO claim based on deeply held, personal beliefs. The Central Committee for Conscientious Objectors is an organization engaged in a nation-wide effort to inform people about Conscientious objection and related peace issues.

We are also registering conscientious objectors with our CO card. This card simply states: "Because of my beliefs about war, I am opposed to participation in the military." Should the draft be reinstated, and this is becoming increasingly likely, a CO card could provide important documentation of your status as an objector. For more information, write to:

CCCO
P.O. Box 15796
Philadelphia,
PA. 19103

The Print Wants Your Advertising Message

For more information call 657-8400, ext. 309,
310 or stop by Trailer B

Clackamas Community College

