

Cagers travel to Hawaii for season opener

The men's basketball team has had three scrimages against four-year schools so far this year: Columbia Christian, George Fox and Concordia Lutheran College.

Coach Royce Kiser has mixed feelings about the scrimages. In the George Fox scrimmage, for example, Clackamas came out and dominated the floor but seemed to lose it in the second half.

"They (George Fox) have a few returning players that are very experienced and experience is one of the factors in winning a basketball game," Kiser said. But overall, Kiser said "Clackamas is progressing very well.

"We have a very strong defense, especially in the guard position and we have the capabilities to play extremely well and we have, but there are still those sections that we need to work on, like rebounding. You have to be there to get that rebound if you want to win," he explained.

The team starts off their season in Hawaii Nov. 6. They play Hawaii Pacific, a tough team, but Coach Kiser is optimistic about the game.

All preparations for the upcoming trip are in order. Members of the basketball team worked to raise money for the trip. The team is paying $200 apiece, while the rest of the money was earned through tournaments and shoot-a-thons. "The guys were real good about working for the money. It is going to be a good trip," Kiser said. When the team returns from Hawaii, they will play North Idaho, there, in December.

The game had been originally scheduled for Nov. 23.

SHAWN KELLEY MANUEVERS the ball around an opponent from Ft. Steilcoom. The Cougars ended up in a tie against the tough Ft. Steilcoom team. Last Saturday the Cougar soccer team won their last league game against Tacoma. At half-time the Cougars were tied with the Tacoma team 2-2, but then scored four goals in the second half to win 6-2. Coach Juanos Szanto said that the team has been working together better. The Cougar soccer team finishes the season with 3 wins, 11 losses, and 4 ties.
