Clackamas' Volleyball team is going to Regionals in second place this year. At the end of regular season play, they were tied for second with Lane Community College and would have had to play an extra game to break the tie, but Lane Community College conceded, leaving Clackamas alone in second place.

The Regional games will be played November 29, 30 and Dec. 1 at Mount Hood Community College. The four regions in the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges will be represented there. The first match that Clackamas will play will be against the number three team in region number one, either Edmonds or Skagit Valley Community College.

"We've already beaten Skagit Valley before so we hope that we play them," said Coach Kathy Woods. The first game will be Thursday Nov. 29 at 5 pm at Mt. Hood Community College.

Overall Coach Woods is really pleased with the performance of this year's team. "Recruiting last year didn't go too well and all of the girls that play, except one, approached the coach about playing. But everything has turned out super and the girls have put all they had into it," Woods said.

Of course the teams new goal is to do well at Regionals.

"Realistically, Mt. Hood will be strong. They should be a real tough team but we feel we can beat them. None of the teams are out of our reach. It won't be unrealistic to say we want the tournament. It is kind of nice to only have one tournament left for us to focus all of our attention on. It is very important to me and all of the girls," Woods said.

Lady Cagers go Hawaii

The Clackamas Community College girls basketball team will return from a week in Hawaii Thursday where they played two games against Hawaii Pacific College.

Before leaving Coach Phil Garver said, "We're excited about this trip, we gotta be." Money for the trip was raised through advertising, fund raisers, and tournaments; the whole team was involved.

Saturday, Dec. 1, is the team's first season game, at home, against Blue Mountain at 6:00 pm. When asked about the potential of the team this season coach Garver said, "I have high expectations out of our team."

December 6th, 7th, and 8th the Cougar girls are hosting a Three States Tournament where one Idaho, five Oregon, and two Washington teams will compete. The competition begins Thursday, Dec. 6 at 4:00 pm when the Cougars meet Treasure Valley Community College out of the Boise area.

Student attendance at all tournament and season games will be greatly appreciated by the team and coach.
