Clackamas' men's basketball team defeated formerly undefeated Chemeketa in what Coach Royce Kiser called the perfect game Saturday night.

"We had to play perfect to beat this team and we did it! This is the same team that earlier had beaten us 84 to 69. This is one of the biggest victories we've had since I have been here at Clackamas," Kiser said.

Earlier in the week Clackamas' team was prone to sickness and injury. Jeff Richards, a usual starter, had a temperature as high as 103° the day before the Chemeketa game yet came out to play for eight minutes. Roger Thompson, another starter, was out with a dislocated thumb. He could be out for the rest of the season.

Junior wrestling clinic scheduled

Young grapplers from third to eighth grade will have an opportunity to pick up some tips and also compete Saturday, Feb. 2 at Clackamas Community College's Fourth Annual Junior Wrestling Tournament and Clinic.

Registration and weigh-ins begin at 8:30 a.m. in Randall Gym. A clinic will be conducted from 9 - 10:15 a.m. with wrestling set to begin at 10:30 a.m. There is a $3.50 entry fee per wrestler.

Larry Owings, College assistant wrestling coach and a former three-time All American wrestler at the University of Washington will teach proper wrestling styles and techniques during the clinic.

Wrestlers will then be bracketed in groups of four within their age division, according to their weight, and each will wrestle round-robin within their bracket.

Each wrestler must present proof of age before competing. All competitors will receive participatory ribbons.

Terry Frison led the team offense with 19 points and 10 rebounds. Tom Bolt had 10 points, Steve Hansen 12 points with 11 rebounds, Doug Coffman 11 points and both Jerry Olsen and Terry Newton added eight.

"At halftime the Cougars led by three points, and when they went back in to play, they just seemed to take control and walk away with the game while the other team just kind of slacked off," Coach Kiser stated.

"It was a rough game, they were fouling and pushing us around, but it was the best game we have played all year. The kids played tough," he added.

Kiser also commended the teams cheering section, with special acknowledgements to the baseball team, who he said attended the game in full force like a sixth man and seemed to help pump up the team, who in the end was ecstatic with their victory.

Terry Frison, one of the team's leading scorers and rebounders said, "We had a bad loss earlier at Linn-Benton. We went in there thinking we we were going to win and we didn't. We needed to win this game and we did. It was one of the best games we have played all season," he added.

Terry Newton, another prominent figure on the team said, "It was great! They (Chemeketa) were rated number one, and we beat them,"

Earlier, on Jan. 16 Clackamas played Lane Community and brought home a 60-59 victory. Some of the highlights of that game were made by Terry Frison and Jeff Richards, who had 17 points, 13 rebounds and Frison 16 points, 9 rebounds.

On Jan. 19, Clackamas played Linn-Benton, where they didn't fare as well. They lost 72 to 71. Jeff Richards led the scoring with 18 points and Roger Thompson led the team with 13 rebounds.

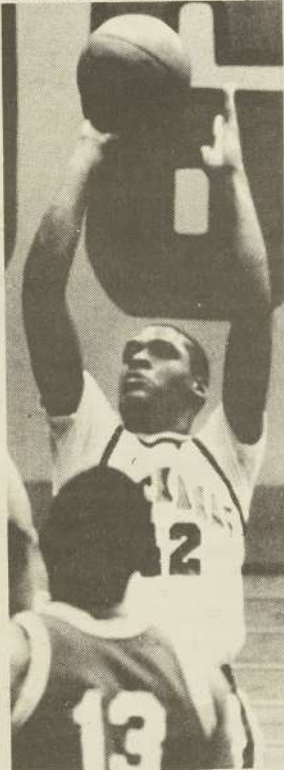

Last Wednesday the Cougars beat Portland Community, here at Clackamas, with an outstanding score of 97-68. In that game Terry Frison had 21 points, Jeff Richards 20 and Roger Thompson 19.

Coach Kiser said the team has overall played good offense, with good passing. He also said that defense was pretty fair, with good rebounding.

"The first ten minutes of the PCC game was pretty much a tie game and then we took over, broke it wide open and took over!" he added.

Wednesday night Clackamas plays Mt. Hood in Gresham at 8 p.m.
