

Acting troupe to perform for dinner theater

Neil Simon's play "California Suite" will be performed by the American Repertory Club. The play will be accompanied by a full-course dinner for the CCC sponsored dinner-theater evening Feb. 28.

'California Suite' chosen for 'cultural experience'

By Julie Miller
Of The Print

On February 28th, the second annual Dinner Theatre will take place in the CCC Mall.

A full course dinner will be served at 6:45 p.m. and at 8:00 p.m. The American Repertory Club will perform Neil Simon's "California Suite".

Tickets are on sale in the Student Activities Office for $10 per person. This price includes both the dinner and the show.

David Buckley, Clackamas' Student Program Specialist is the coordinator behind the program. He said he had heard of other schools doing similar activities and it sounded fun, so he thought he'd give it a try at the College.

"Dinner Theatre is not a money raiser," Buckley said, "It is an opportunity to expose students and residents to a nice cultural experience."

The American Repertory Club operates out of Texas and performs in Oregon, Washington and California. They learn four or five plays a year and the people they perform for get to choose the play they are most interested in seeing. In this case it was "California Suite."

The play's story takes place in a luxurious Beverly Hills Hotel, focusing primarily in Room 203. During the course of the story, four groups of travelers inhabit the room and the audience sees their different stories through the play. The play was a hit Broadway comedy before it was made into a movie.

Valentine's dance hosts Portland band

Sweethearts and others can celebrate Valentine's Day this year by attending Clackamas Community College's Valentine's Day dance. The Portland-based group China

Watch will play for the semiformal evening scheduled to begin at 9 p.m.

China Watch is primarily a Top 40 group, billed as playing songs by Bruce Springsteen, The Cars, Billy Idol, Huey Lewis and the News and Flock of Seagulls among others.

ASG Activities Director, Kay Brant said she signed the group to play for the College dance after they were recommended by a talent agency that she works with. She was sent a videotape that China Watch had just completed, which Brant said she liked.

Tickets for the dance will be $3 for students and $4 for non-students.

Tim Ellis sports the popular t-shirt for the British group "Frankie Goes To Hollywood." Mike Fitzgerald and Curt Everson back him up in their lip-sync version of "Relax." Not pictured is Todd Lopiparo and Joe Tupper. The group won third place and $25 in the College's Feb. 6 contest.

— Fashion topic of Career Day —

All proceeds from the 29th annual Career Day sponsored by the Fashion Group of Portland will be donated to a student scholarship fund. The non-profit event is open to all students and community members seeking information on careers in the field of fashion.

"Excellence in Fashion" will be presented in Miller Hall at the Forestry Center on Saturday, February 16, beginning at 8:30 a.m. The program will feature seven panelists from Northwest firms and organizations.

A question and answer period will follow each panelist's presentation. Special interest tables will be organized to focus on subjects covered by the speakers.

The cost of the seminar is $15 for adults and $12 for high school and college students. To pre-register, send a check or money order to Michele Young c/o Bassist College, 2000 S.W. 5th Avenue, Portland 97201.

New CCC CAFETERIA New
EGG VON MUFFIN

(or biscuit)

Only.....99¢

Also on the breakfast menu:

biscuit and gravy

Hash browns

cold cereal

Served from 7 - 10:30 a.m.

Community Center
Building

