The Clackamas Community College Women's tennis team holds a season record of 3-3 with recent wins against Lower Columbia Community College and Linfield.

The 9-0 victory over Lower Columbia, on April 9, was the first league match for the Cougars, giving them a 1-0 league record in the early going.

Playing in the first singles position for the Cougars, Edie

Bauer defeated her Lower Columbia opponent with set scores of 6-0 6-1.

In the second singles spot, Laura Novak won her first set 6-0, then ran into trouble in the second set, finishing on the short end with 6-7. She came back to clean up in the third set with a 6-0 score to win the match.

Third singles player for the Cougars, Jacke Stafford, won her match with set scores of 6-2 6-3 and Kirsten Osborne also came out on top in the number four spot with scores of 6-0 6-3.

The Cougars' first doubles team players Bauer and Stafford beat their Lower Columbia opponents with set scores of 6-4 6-4. The second team of Novak and Osborne also won, after a particularly close second set, with scores of 6-2 7-5.

Anjanette Robbins and Les Kingsbury of the Cougar team were given byes in the match as the Lower Columbia team fielded only four opponents for the six-person Cougar team.

In their non-league match against Linfield, the Cougars won by a score of 8-1. Coach Nancy Mikleton was impressed with the team's performance by saying, "The girls played really well." Mikleton named Robbins and Kingsbury as having especially good matches against their Linfield opponents.

Robbins moved up to play at the fourth position against Linfield as Stafford was unable to play due to illness. Robbins won the match with set scores of 6-3 6-1.

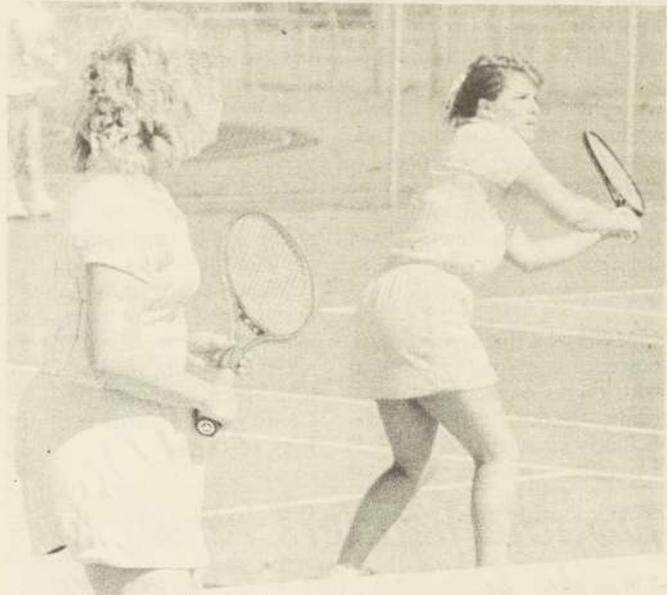

Kingsbury had a fierce dual against her Linfield opponents in the fifth position. After losing the first set 2-6, Kingsbury battled back to win with scores of 7-5 7-6.

Bauer suffered the only loss for the Cougars, losing 2-6 1-6 in the first singles match. Bauer, along with Novak, was able to come back and win in the doubles match, however, with scores of 5-7, 6-2 and 6-3.

The second doubles team of Osborne and Robbins were also victorious 6-4 6-5, as was the third doubles team of Kingsbury and Chris McGarry.

Coach Mikleton feels the team has been playing well but added that recently they have been battling the flu and pulled muscles. She pointed out that the level of experience of the teams they will be facing in upcoming matches will be a big factor in the success of the Cougar team.

Sports for everyone Intramural

The Intramural Sports and Recreation Activities Program at Clackamas Community College allows all students, faculty and staff the opportunity to participate in many activities this term.

Opportunities are provided for group and/or individual participation in competitive, structured and some non-structured recreational activities. Spring term activities are as follows:

Softball- coed division- A team must field at least three females in each contest, or the game will be considered a forfeit. Competition will take place on Tuesdays and/or Thursdays from noon-1 p.m. On rainy days check the Intramural Bulletin Board at 11 a.m. for postponements.

Tennis- men's and women's division- Members of College Intercollegiate Tennis teams may compete. Competition is based on ladder play.

Fun Runs- Two runs between two-four miles will be run on May 2 and 23 and will start at noon (rain or shine) at the "loading zone" off of the lower level of Randall Hall. T-shirts will be awarded to the top female and male finishers. A runner may win only one T-shirt per term.

All entries must be submitted by Thursday, April 18. Turn into appropriate envelope on the Intramural Bulletin Board.

College Intramural T-shirts will be awarded to each champion provided they have competed a pre-determined amount set by the intramural director. One person may only win one T-shirt per term.

Triathlon

Community members are invited to compete in Clackamas Community College's Second Annual Cougar Triathlon scheduled for Sunday, April 21.

The triathlon will consist of a one-half mile swim, a 15-mile bike ride and a 3½-mile run. The race will start at 10 a.m. at the Oregon City Municipal Swimming Pool, with an orientation meeting at 9:30 a.m.

Registration is due by 5 p.m. April 19 and participation is limited to the first 150 entries. There is a $10 entry fee.

Awards will be presented to first-place finishers in each age division. For a map of the course or more information, call the Community Recreation Office at 657-8400, ext. 440.
