Lady Cougars beat SWOCC, go to playoffs

Saturday was a "killer" day for the College's volleyball team. They definitely put an end to their losing streak, wiping out Southwestern Oregon Community College (SWOCC) in a best three out of four games match. The scores were 15-11, 15-13, 6-15 and 15-8.

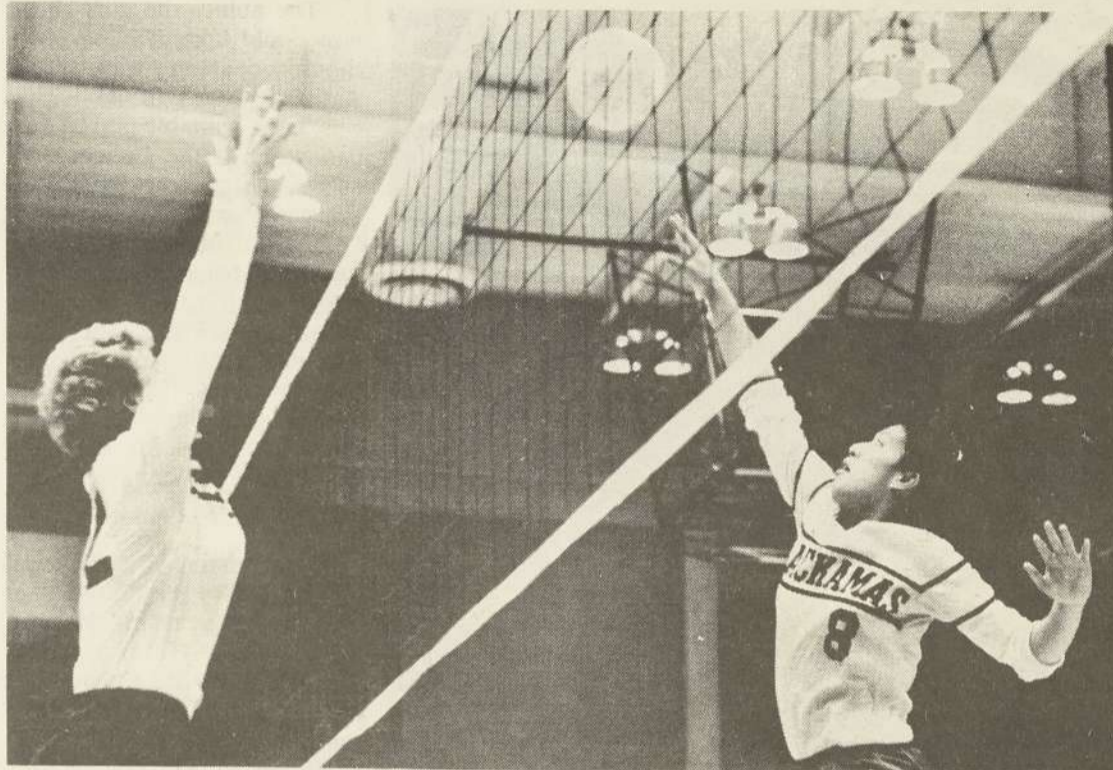

The Cougars won the first two games after having to fight hard for them, then lost the third when their momentum seemed lost.

"It's hard to keep playing tough all of the time. When you play three tough games your hardest you get tired," said Coach Kathie Woods.

When the fourth game came around so did the Cougars who got it together and totally dominated the game. Early in the game the Clackamas took a lead fast and feeling was high out on the floor and excitement seemed to emanate from the floor to the bleachers. It was obvious which team wanted to win this.

The Cougars clearly dominated the fourth and final game dishing out tough service aces and kills. They took the lead early in the game 10-2.

After the ball kept going back and forth, SWOCC finally started to put some points on the board, but lost it when two balls in a row hit the center of the floor with everyone watching, not doing anything about it.

"To date, that is the most heart, desire, and effort they had all season. I'm proud of them."

"It was great!" said player Carrie Coe, "It's the last home game for Jenny (Holzemer), Kathie (Collins) and me. The best thing is that last night SWOCC beat Mt. Hood, and now we have beaten them. Now we are fighting for the playoffs. Coach (Woods) did a great job and it was great to have all of those wrestlers here. It really helped our adrenalin flow. It's great to win."

The Cougars then started to flow and put a quick end to the game, winning it 15-8.

According to a beaming Coach Woods, their attack was balanced and the team came in ready to play. She said the team had been working hard and their mental attitude was great.

"They played with heart.

"When you have 54 kills, that shows a great game by the setters. These were some of the best games for Jody (Bramwell) and Trina (Borden) this year," she said.

Having lost to Clackamas on Saturday, SWOCC lost the number one spot that they only received the night before after beating Mt. Hood.

The Clackamas netters are guaranteed a playoff spot with their latest win. Playoff matches will begin today with the Cougars facing Chemeketa Community College in Seattle.

When you play with that you'll win. That was one of the things we needed to improve on and it's exciting to see it come together. To date that is the most heart, desire and effort they had all season. I'm proud of them," Coach Woods said.

Woods also added that statistics don't show the improvements of the setters and stated that they did an excellent job of defense and in leadership.
