Poff resigns position

To the Editor,

This letter is written notification that as of the end of Fall term I will be resigning from my position as ASG's Administrative Assistant.

I am glad to be a part of ASG. I have gained valuable experience which I would not have been able to obtain in any classroom and I have enjoyed working with all the members of ASG. Since I took office, I have seen many changes in ASG that we should all be proud of and I have seen the members of ASG grow from these experiences.

Unfortunately, I have recently experienced some financial problems that have forced me to seek full-time employment. I have been offered a position with a major bank that looks as though it will be challenging and profitable. Although I will miss ASG, I will retain fond memories. Also, I plan to continue at CCC as a part-time student, hoping to complete requirements for an Associates degree in the spring.

Food slobs need to clean up act

To the Editor,

We would like to complain about something that has really bothered us for a long time, and that is the irresponsibility of the students who use the cafeteria.

It would be hoped by the time we all reach the college level that we would be responsible enough to pick up after ourselves and to clean up our own messes. There is nothing more frustrating than to go to the cafeteria to eat, study, or talk and have to sit down amongst someone else's dirty dishes. Or worse yet, have to pick up those dishes and clean up their mess just so you can have a clean place to sit.

Although there are people who do clean up tables during lunchtime, that's still no excuse for people being too lazy, ill-mannered, or whatever to not pick up their dishes and place them on the racks provided as they leave the cafeteria. Along with helping out the cafeteria staff, we would all be doing a great service by pitching in and picking up after ourselves.

Don't students care?

To the Editor,

It has been brought to my attention that the students of CCC have little or no interest in supporting the CCC Student Canned Food Drive.

I have been told that there is little or no Christmas spirit in our student body.

I know that this is a very busy time for all our students and staff with finals coming up, but please let us take a moment to remember those less fortunate than us by giving even ONE CAN OF FOOD

EACH.

Let's not let it be said that we, the students and staff of CCC, don't care enough about our fellow man to give just a little to make their Christmas a happy one.

Breck Jacobs
ASG Activities Director

Ed. note: Jacobs did request that The Print publish Food Drive information during the week of Dec. 2-6. This was not possible due to school closures.

Band stirs crowd

By Loretta Carter

Staff Writer

Knee slappin' and toe tappin' was the setting last Saturday night as The Cabin Fever Band got underway.

The music was a combination of fiddle playing, country solos, Gospel tunes, and well-known bluegrass hits.

The attendance last Saturday was very good. There was approximately 130 country music lovers who showed up for the 3-hour show. If you didn't make it you missed out on a lot of down home country music and a whole passel of friendly folks.

The band is made up of 25 members with ages ranging from 10-years to 80. Don't let the age 80 fool you. The sounds that came from the 80-year-old's instrument couldn't be beat. These musicians have been together for five-years. There are several husband and wife teams, as well as mother and daughter and brother and brother teams. The band is organized and directed by Bob Miskey who also plays guitar.

The Cabin Fever Band plays for charity functions around the community. There is no charge for their concerts. The band is a hobby for these people. It is a time when they all get together and make music and have fun.

$21,000

That's Army math. It means that after 2 years of college (60 semester hours or equivalent) and a 2-year enlistment, you could have up to $21,000 to continue your education. Courtesy of the New GI Bill + New Army College Fund. (Effective July 1, 1985).

That other 2 means you can get two years of ROTC credit by enrolling in ROTC at the third year level (with the approval of the college's Professor of Military Science) when you reenter college. You'll earn $100 a month in ROTC.

Qualify, and you'll start your enlistment with a promotion. And just because you're out of school doesn't mean you stop learning. We'll teach you a skill that can help you go places later.

And you'll go places now, because we give soldiers an opportunity to travel. And a chance to make new friends.

Not to mention a lot of money for college. Plus the chance to become an Army officer. Contact your local Army Recruiter today.
