Season Begins

Grapplers host wrestling tournament

The wrestling season has officially begun with the starting of the winter term as Clackamas hosted a wrestling tournament last weekend.

There were 12 colleges participating in the tournament. Nationally ranked North Idaho, Pacific University, Pacific Lutheran, Oregon State University, University of Oregon, South Western Oregon CC, Linfield College, Portland State University, Southern Oregon CC, Highline CC, Centralia CC and of course, Clackamas were all here for the wrestle off.

North Idaho took home the Championship trophy beating the second place school, Pacific University, by a point spread of 90 to 47. The third place trophy went to Centralia Washington who had 28 points.

Clackamas' very own Chuck Calhoun placed second in his weight division, beating Chuck Ashmuhs, who had previously held the number one spot. "I feel Chuck Calhoun did an excellent job," said Head Coach Norm Berny.

Berny stated that he was pleased with the overall results of the tournament, though he added that he was a little disappointed because five of his starters were out because of injuries. "We didn't enter anyone who we didn't feel could compete at their highest level," Berny said.

Juan Ybarra was out due to an ankle injury, Lazzarro Ybarra with a neck injury, Doug Harper had strep throat, Kris Tellegen pulled a groin muscle and Jeff Seaney was out with a knee injury. "I was pleased with the tournament and the competition. I didn't feel we were really represented, we only had a few out and our freshman wrestled against juniors and seniors," Berny said, "but weren't out to win after all the injuries."

Berny also added that the year was off to a good start, with two of his wrestlers, Rocky Hart and Jack Beeler, earning four-point grade averages. "Positive things have happened. The team just needs to get healthy," Berny said.

Intramural News

During the long months of winter term, if you don't want to go skiing because it is either too far or too expensive, don't fret because there is another way to get some exercise and have fun doing it. All students and faculty members are invited to participate in the College's intramural sports and recreational activities.

The activities for winter term at the college include "Three on Three" Coed Volleyball, "Five on Five" Basketball, Coed Badminton, Coed Racquetball, and of course the everfun Fun-Runs.

Volleyball

On Feb. 5, starting at 2 p.m. there will be an all day volleyball tournament ending at 5 p.m. The teams must be coed and there cannot be more than two intercollegiate volleyball players per team. The deadline to sign up is Tuesday Feb. 4 by 2 p.m. Sign up on the Intramural bulletin board in Randall Hall, across from Kathie Woods' office.

Basketball

If you are interested in playing "Five on Five" Basketball, have your name signed up on the intramural bulletin board by Jan. 17. Games will be played each Tuesday and Thursday at noon in the gym. But one small note, no intercollegiate players may compete...Sorry!

Badminton

For those of you Coed Badminton fiends, the sign up deadline is Jan. 17. Please leave a number where you can be reached or where a message may be left.

Racquetball

Coed Racquetball will be played in a round robin tournament at Eastside Athletic Club. In order to play in this event, and to use the facility, you must be enrolled in the racquetball class at the college.

Fun-Runs

Two Fun-Runs are being scheduled for Winter term. The runs will be from two to four miles in length. The first will be on Thursday, Feb. 13 and the second will be on Thursday, Mar. 13. Both races will start at noon whether rain or shine and runners are to meet in front of the lower level of Randall Hall. T-Shirts will be awarded to the winning female and male winners.

All Champions will receive a colorful Clackamas Intramural T-Shirt.
