Win by forfeits

by Christopher Curran

Well, we did it. The Print's intramural softball team soared through the regular season and earned the number one playoff spot in the playoff tournament.

The 2-1 record that the team produced was a glorious result to a real team effort all season (three games). It was the first season that The Print has sported a softball team and in the end it was well worth it.

In our last game against the DKs, an injury riddled Print team stumbled onto the field. With barely the eight players total and the three females needed to be eligible, we came out on top in the form of a forfeit. I couldn't believe it. The kids really came through.

It was our second win in three games. I felt confident about our playoff game after this game. Our finesse was impeccable. We played better than I think we had played in, oh, maybe a week.

The team's only loss came on April 27 when the kids went up against the Fighting Ducks. In a disappointing 9-4 loss the first inning ended in a 7-0 lead in favor of the Ducks.

The Print didn't let the Ducks have the last two innings that easily. In the second inning, pitcher/photographer Von Daniel came up with a grounder good enough for a single. Next up was yours truly. My double went just past the shortstop and just under the left fielder and advanced Von to third base. The next batter came up and batted both Von and I across the home plate. Shortly thereafter we obtained our third out and were retired for the inning. The Ducks only managed one run in that inning.

The third inning saw center fielder/Business Manager Jim Brown get a base hit, followed by the only home run hit from our team this season. Von's home run brought Jim across the plate and, of course, himself as well. Again, the Ducks could only manage one run in the inning. Despite our first inning flaws we did stage a minor comeback, but it was not enough.

The first game in the history of our franchise ended victorious. Team 4 didn't have enough pizzazz, and they also didn't have enough women on their team, therefore, it was a forfeit. Even though the game that was played didn't count, some of the kids impressed me. Jim's two catches showed me more than any spring training session could, as did left fielder/Feature Editor Marie Stoppelmoor's two catches in our second game.

With all of the talent on this team we certainly look prepared for the playoffs. And, as Frank Bartles would say, "We thank you for your support."

Win a rafting trip

Here's an exclusive contest for readers of The Print. The following are 10 questions about sports. Answer them the best you can and turn them in at Trailer B (just north of Randall Hall). Of all the entries received, the one with the best score will be the winner. In case of a tie, the winner will be chosen by a drawing of all entries that tied. Deadline to enter is Friday, May 15, 1987. The winner will receive a free white water rafting trip for him/her and a guest with white water guide Larry Peters. (Date must be confirmed by May 20, 1987.)
