

THE PRINT

Vol. XXII No. 5

Wednesday, November 2, 1988

Clackamas Community College

Oregon City, Oregon

Campus costumes

Head Librarian Valerie McQuaid gets into the Halloween spirit Monday as she portrays the Wicked Witch from "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." photo by Julie Church

Tutoring available to all students at Clackamas

by Briane C. Dotson
Staff Writer

Clackamas Community College's tutorial program is open for all students who need help and are willing to ask for it.

Tutorial classes are based on the need of the student. To go about getting involved and being tutored, a student needs to go to Judy Peabody's office in Barlow and fill out a tutorial card and go through an interview process.

The only real requirements are that the student is attending the class regularly, is approved by his instructor, and that the student is in the appropriate class.

Tutors are available at all times during regular business hours except Fridays. To set up a time, a student needs to fill out a request card.

"It is not only important students come in for tutoring, it is also important for them to see their instructor," Peabody said.

There are two different kinds of tutors: a student tutor and a person specialized in the field of study the student is having problems in.

Students who would like to become a student tutor must have a 3.0 grade point average, an A or B in the subject they wish to tutor, and they must be approved by the chairperson of that academic area. Then, the student must be interviewed by Judy Peabody.

Pay for tutors is $3.50 an hour. The student is required to bring his own books. However, students are not allowed to work more than 20 hours a week as a tutor.

There are over 70 free hand-outs available in the learning lab, covering everything from how to take a test, to studying math.

Career Market gives assistance

by Laurie Washburn
Staff Writer

The Career Market will be held today from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Community Center. Gail Laferriere of the Career Development Center has helped provide this opportunity to assist students in making decisions on future careers.

Attending students may ask professionals in a particular field their own questions. They can get the hard facts from the people who perform the occupations every day.

There will be 70 individuals, made up of visiting professionals, and CCC instructors. Speakers from different fields will have a table, so that students will be able to get all of their questions answered.

There will be a great variety of occupations on hand at the Career Market: a graphic designer from Nike, a promotions coordinator/DJ from KGON, a physical therapist, a professional musician, an Omark manufacturing engineer, and many others.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for anyone with career questions to get solid information from the experts. The professionals coming to Career Market are very excited about what they are doing and very eager to help others make wise career decisions," said Laferriere.

If you have any questions or comments about the Career Market, contact Gail Laferriere at Ext. 396, or go to CC117 in the Community Center.

Tuition hike due

by Briane C. Dotson
Staff Writer

Clackamas Community College students could see a hike in tuition cost starting next year according to Bill Ryan, administrative dean of college services and planning.

The proposal for tuition increase would be $10 a term which would bring the tuition to a cost of $240. This is an increase of 4.3%, about the same as what the inflation rate is at according to Ryan.

Raising the tuition $10 per term is worth about $100,000 to CCC. Around 13% of CCC's finances comes from student tuition, 50% comes from tax payers. The remaining 27% comes from the state of Oregon.

In comparison with other community colleges around the country, CCC is in the middle of the road when it comes to tuition.

The highest costing community college in the state is at $264 per term. The average tuition, nationwide, for community colleges in 1987 was $687 per year.

This year, Clackamas is operating with a $16 million budget. However, some things will be done differently: thermostats will be turned down to 68 degrees which will save around five percent on the heating bill. Lawns will not be watered as much during the summer months, saving from $25-30,000 a year.

Replacement of instructional equipment and up-keep maintenance will be put off also.

"With this tuition increase the school is trying to reach a happy medium with the tax payers with what is fair for the students also," Ryan said.

Rollin' on the river

photo by Debbie Baker

Recently 21 people participated in a co-op wilderness adventure on the Rogue River. The trip lasted three days and was offered as part of Don Shula's rafting class. Pictured above, from left are Linda Holmes, Linda Brown, Jeanette Winkler, Pete Hiebler and Don Shula.

News Digest

Kopetski to visit campus

Mike Kopetski, Democratic candidate for fifth district in congress, will visit the campus tomorrow from 10-11:30 a.m. He will be walking around different areas of the campus. Students and staff are invited to ask questions of the candidate.

Writers invited to enter contest

Attention all writers. The Gaines Smith Writing Contest Committee is now accepting entries from resident Oregon writers. There are cash prizes in three categories: fiction, non-fiction and humor. Entries must be original material not published before Nov. 18, 1988. Mail entries to Gaines Smith Writing Contest, care of Anne Kern, secretary, 449 Howard, Eugene OR 97404.

Brown bag lunch set

Graduates of the DH/SP program currently enrolled in CCC classes are invited to a brown bag lunch next Tuesday, 12:30-1:30, in P-104.

Cans Film Festival to be held in Nov.

See a movie for (almost) free! Luxury Theatres offer a free film night to benefit the Oregon Food Bank. Moviegoers are invited to see a first run film at Luxury Theatres in the Portland area. Admission is free with a donation of at least two cans of food at the door. People are asked to donate high protein foods (like tuna or chili) equal to the price of admission. This event is scheduled to take place on Tues., Nov. 15. For more information call the Oregon Food Bank at 282-0555.

Inside:

Bonus two page election coverage. Turn to pages 2-3 for reviews of candidates and ballot measures.

16 (M)	17	18 (B)	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
49.25	38.62	28.86	16.19	8.29	3.44	31.41	72.46	72.95	29.37	54.91	43.96	82.74	52.79	50.87
-0.16	-0.18	0.54	-0.05	-0.81	-0.23	20.98	-24.45	16.83	13.06	-38.91	52.00	3.45	50.88	-27.17
0.01	-0.04	0.60	0.73	0.19	0.49	-19.43	55.93	68.80	-49.49	30.77	30.01	81.29	-12.72	-29.46
0.75	0.98	1.24	1.67	2.04	2.42

SN: P0013

Colors by Munsell Color Services Lab

centimeters

Don Williams