Week ends in bloodless coup

by Comrade Zuhkov
Staff Liar

A bizarre week ended Thursday with a bloodless coup that ousted the CCC Associated Student Government.

Witnesses said that an armed group calling themselves the United Student Social Reform Revolutionary Front took control of the ASG offices.

Rumors run rampant as to the whereabouts of former ASG President (Keep the) Faith Taylor. While it has been speculated that she met with foul play comrade Paul Kyllov, spokesman for the front, denied these rumors.

"Comrade Taylor has merely been exiled to Chemeketa Community College Party for political re-indoctrination and work on her grades," he said.

Student government was renamed The Student Central Committee and it is expected that long time party strongman Norm Bernzinski will be announced as chairman and political commissar at a news conference tomorrow.

Reactions varied among campus faculty members. "I think it was a change that was needed," said Linda Volkov, advisor to the Ministry of Information Services. "The party knows what's best for us. ASG needed political reorganization so that the masses could function more smoothly. And besides, their grades were terrible."

Political Science Teacher John Rau, a noted imperialist warmonger, disagreed. "I've been warning people for a long time that something like this would happen if we didn't draw the line on communism, welfare, food stamps, medicare, social security and all those other worthless commie programs," Rau declared. "Those stinking reds think they can just come in here and take over like they did at Chemeketa. Well, let me tell you: there are still a few of us real Americans around that own guns and are not afraid to use them."

Minister of Athletics Royce Kischev was indifferent to the new developments. "I don't care much one way or another as long as we can field a championship basketball team," he quipped. "You have to look at the bright side of this...hopefully now we can get Arvydas Sabonis playing for the Red Cougars next season. Heck, we'd be undefeated."

Ipea Uchit (R), the new leader of the People's Student Government, and Uchit Ipea (L), assistant leader, stand in front of the headquarters from which they staged their successful coup.

KGB trailer destroyed in attack

by Comrade Zuhkov

A bomb destroyed the campus KGB trailer Thursday, killing and injuring 25 people. An ultra right-wing terrorist group known as the Committee to Re-Elect Faith (CREEF) claimed responsibility for the act.

An experienced international mercenary, terrorism is nothing new to Rick Piller, the man believed to be the head of the group. Piller was last seen killing helpless women and children for cocaine in Central America. Ever the egotist, Piller telephoned an interview to the Ministry of Information.

"Who cares about them?" Piller said. "Commies are like animals: they don't got no rights. With the current economic climate in America you have to go to where you can get your fair price per head to kill commies."

Pillar's attitude on the bombing of the KGB trailer was entirely different however. "That was different. I don't want people thinking that I'm cold blooded and heartless. I love America and I do stuff like that for free for Uncle Sam. They deserved to die...those are the people that keep trying to take away my AK-47 and they were the Bolshevik scum that invented them," Piller complained.

Piller warned that there would be more terrorist activity in the future. "I'm gonna take a bunch of party bigshots hostage and kill one of them a day until Faith is reinstated and these ridiculous charges on my friend Ollie North are dropped," he promised.

This is all that remains of the KGB trailer after a terrorist bombing by the Committee to Re-Elect Faith (CREEF).

DISCLAIMER

The MisPrint is the April Fool's edition of the CCC student newspaper and is completely fictional. It is not meant to be malicious or spiteful; it is merely good-natured satire. If you have absolutely NO sense of humor read no further. The contents of this publication are bound to confuse the collective redneck brain cell shared by the humorless inhabitants of this backwater area. In other words, if you don't think The MisPrint is funny, and/or take offense at this publication, we don't really give a damn because Larry Flynt insured freedom of satire for all!!

Party paper published

This paper represents the first issue of the official publication of the Clackamas College Communist Party (CCCP) Ministry of Information Services. It replaces the bourgeois capitalist rag, "The Print," which was a tool of the imperialist American government.

Though we know you are all loyal party members, you may be wondering what happened to the capitalist pigs that used to staff the old regime's publication. Editor-in-Chief Christopher Curran, Managing Editor Caree Hussey, and most of the other old staff were sent to a forced labor camp in Clairmont Hall ("little Siberia"), where they now serve the people in a more productive fashion in the State Condom Testing Division.

Unfortunately the biggest enemy of the people, movie critic Rick Piller, was deported to Oregon City where he formed a resistance movement. Minister of State Security Stan Johnson informed the Ministry that his team of brave comrades is closing in on Colonel Piller's band of ill-equipped, malnourished mercenaries.
