

briefs

Pow Wow set

Sixty to 100 Indian dancers are expected to compete for $1,200 in prizes at a Pow Wow to be held on the Clackamas Community College campus October 22, 23 and 24.

In addition to dancing there will be a drumming competition and a display of Indian artifacts. Indian food and crafts will be sold.

The free event is being sponsored by Ouy Ka' Lah, the college's Indian club, Associated Student Government, and the college's student activities office.

The sponsors are also holding a raffle for an Indian blanket. Tickets are 50¢ each or three for $1.00 and are available at the student activities office.

Parking for campers will be available on campus.

Information about the Pow Wow and registration for the drumming and dancing competitions is available from the Indian Outreach office, 656-2631, ext. 324.

Ullman visits

Representative Al Ullman (Democrat, Or.) spoke in the Fireside Lounge yesterday from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

There will be a story on his visit to Clackamas Community College in next week's issue.

Ullman is chairman of the Ways and Means Committee in the House of Representatives.

Elections set

The election of the 1976-77 student senate will be held Thursday and Friday, October 14 and 15.

There is still time for interested students to get their names on the ballot. All a student has to do is go into the Student Activities Office and fill out a petition. Student signatures are not required to make the petition valid. Petitions must be turned in by October 11.

A candidate forum is scheduled for Tuesday, October 12, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. to give students a chance to ask questions of senatorial candidates. The forum may also be used by Associated Student Government officers to outline their plans for the year to the student body.

Symposium

Clackamas Community College Business students interested in attending a symposium on "Career Potentials" should contact Lyle Reese, ext. 255.

This is the 12th Annual Business College Symposium sponsored by the Portland Chamber of Commerce and will be held November 9.

Invitations will be extended to a total of 400 students and faculty from 18 Oregon colleges and universities.

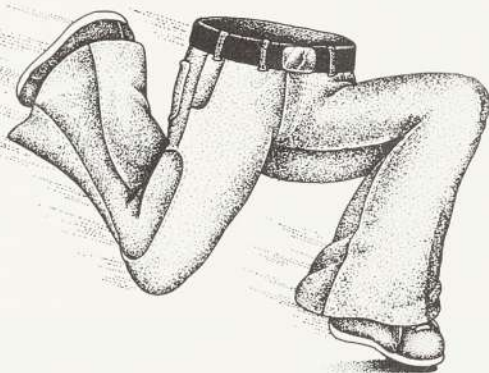

"The purpose of the symposium is to provide a forum for Oregon businesses, colleges, and universities to exchange information and viewpoints on business careers," according to M.L. Chester, symposium chairman and University of Portland development director.

Page 2

the arts

Watch for this new addition in next week's Cougar Print

New from Levi's! "Movin' On" Jeans.

A slimmer, European cut. With Levi's® quality. In lots of fabrics and colors. The Gap's got a ton of 'em. Fall in today.

the gap

LLOYD CENTER

© The Gap 1976

Clackamas Community College

