Flick "roars" in Monday presentation

Revue to perform

Clackamas County's women artists will be featured in an exhibit at the Clackamas County Courthouse in Oregon City beginning Oct. 18.

"The Liberated Canvas" is the title of the four month showing.

Women artists from throughout the county have been invited to enter their artwork.

of her own compositions, including the hit gold record, "Poetry Man".

Phoebe Snow is presented by Northwest Releasing. Tickets for the show are on sale at the Ticket Place at Lipmans, Stevens and Son, First Federal in Vancouver, Everybody's I and II and the Paramount.

Art exhibit slated

"Le Grand Magic Circus", a far-out revue from Paris for mature audiences, will open a two-night stand at the Portland Civic Auditorium on Thursday evening, Oct. 21. Curtain time for both Thursday and Friday evenings will be 8:15 p.m.

This year's version is entitled "The Grand Sentiments" and the revue is based on love.

Tickets for "Le Grand Magic Circus", priced at $7.00, $6.00 and $5.00, are on sale now at Celebrity Attractions, 1010 S.W. Morrison, Portland, Oregon 97205.

One of the entertainment regulars at Clackamas Community College is the Monday Flick. Every week in the Fireside Lounge a movie is shown for student entertainment.

This week's film, beginning at 11:30 a.m., is entitled "The Mouse that Roared". This comedy describes how an insignificant European country declares war on the United States to get rehabilitation. One problem is that they didn't count on winning.

Each week's movies were picked during a movie preview where 100 people were polled. If you missed this preview and would like a movie shown, contact Pat Bottorff at the Student Activities office.

Now concert set

Phoebe Snow, said to be one of America's finest and freshest musical talents, turns to Portland's Paramount Northwest for a single performance on Thursday, Oct. 1 at 8 p.m.

Miss Snow's tunes vary from Billie Holiday and Judy Garland numbers to more current works by Leon Russell, Neil Young and Richie Havens. She also performs many
