

ASG officers to meet , discuss NORML

Newly-elected student government senators will attend their first ASG meeting this week to discuss such topics as marijuana law reform, student committee participation and campus clubs.

The meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 21, at 11 a.m. in the Fireside lounge, CC Mall.

The new senators are Michael Ralls, James Cooper, Thomas Blethen, John Umbras, Candace Schwabauer, Deborah Schwab, Don Bixler, Ken Roberts, Maureen Kearney, Kitty Sellman, Brian Peters, Larry Granger, Debbie Bottorff, Debbie Griffin, Marsha Kunkel, and Lea Ranck.

The student body is not only involved in ASG. Charlie Bennett, ASG Vice President, will lead discussion about the possibility of the formation of a chapter of the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Legislation (NORML).

Jerry Bellavita, assistant to the ASG President is seeking student participation for committees on campus. Those interested may contact Bellavita at student government office ext. 257. The committees are Arboretum & Ecology Learning center; Instruction Co-ordination committee, and a Long-range planning committee.

One of the new senators, Ken Roberts stated that "students in this school don't know what's going on. What I plan to do is make it as obvious as I can as to what is going on." When asked what he sees in the way of ASG sponsorship, Ken Roberts said, "I'd like to see more people like Al Ullman speaking here."

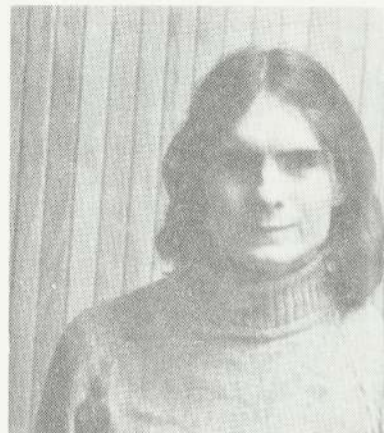

Candayce Schwabauer, new senator, expressed that "new people are coming to Clackamas Community College all the time with fresh and bright ideas about action." She said, "I hope to help make it happen."
