CCRT offers free driver ride

A "chauffeured ride to the play" in a unique automobile will be awarded to a lucky holder for the first performance of "Merton of the Movies," the first full length production of the Clackamas County Repertory Theater (CCRT). Opening night is October 29.

All reserved ticket holders for the first performance will be eligible for the special service which will be decided by a drawing, says Mike Aronson, president of CCRT.

Reserved tickets for the play which runs Friday and Saturday nights from October through November 20 are available by calling the Tri-City Chamber of Commerce Oregon City, 655-1619.

"Merton of the Movies" is the story of Merton Gill, a newly graduated film student from Simsbury, Illinois who arrives in the city to seek fame and fortune.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $3 for adults; $2.50 for students; $1.50 for children 12 and under and free for Senior Citizens with reservations.

Art on display

Ceramics and drawings by Frank Boyden, an Oregon resident, will be on view at the Hoffman Gallery, School of the Arts and Crafts Society, 616 N.W. 18th, Portland, from Nov. 1 through Nov. 20.

The low-fire, slip glaze ceramics in the exhibition, both hand built and wheel thrown, are made from native Oregon clays dug by the artist. He describes them as completely non-functional. Mr. Boyden's ink wash and pastel drawings deal with the coastal horizon phenomenon in the environment in which he lives.

There will be a public reception for the artist Nov. 1, 7:30 p.m. at the Hoffman Gallery. The gallery is open Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., Friday through Saturday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is free.

Vocalist due

Clackamas Community College (CCC) will host an evening of "Love, Laughter and Song" as Kay St. Germain presents her unique one-woman musical show Nov. 2 at 8 p.m. in the Community Center Mall.

Miss St. Germain's concert brings back the songs of the '30's and '40's including "I Only Have Eyes For You", "As Time Goes By", "Stardust" and "Come Rain or Shine."

Miss St. Germain was a top performer during the golden days of radio and the Big Band Era. Since that time she has performed in motion pictures, television programs and commercials, on the Broadway stage, and written a syndicated column.

Tickets are available at CCC's student activities office (656-2631 extension 257). Prices are $1.50 for students, $2 general, and free for senior citizens with a Gold Card.
