A brief pause in action while the offense took the field gave defensive end Mark Stennfeld a chance to talk over game strategy with an unidentified teammate. Stennfeld is one of CCC's leading defensive players for the season, and was a Journal All-State back on LaGrande's 1974 state championship club.

Mt. Hood breaks CCC win streak

In Saturday's rivalry game with Mt. Hood Community College, Clackamas Community College were handed their first defeat in five games. The No. 1 nationally rated Saints defeated the Cougars with a 56-12 score.

The Cougars' excess of errors, including four intercepted passes and one fumble, partly accounted for the wide margin in final scores.

Despite the team errors, the CCC still moved the ball against Mt. Hood. Quarterback Pat Moran completed 16 passes for 236 yards and one touchdown. Craig Johnston also was in on the score. On a touchdown, he gained 50 yards, completing two of five passes.

Receivers for the Cougar passing attack included Don Cannady, who had an outstanding game of pass catching by catching the ball eight times for 144 yards, J. B. Johnston gained 88 yards by grabbing three passes, and Andy Phillips caught four for 34 yards. Steve Rumrey caught a well aimed Johnston pass late in the fourth quarter for the Cougar's second touchdown. Rumrey's touchdown moved him to the lead of the Cougar's season's scorers.

Phillips was Clackamas' top ground runner with 52 yards in 10 carries. Joe Davidson carried the ball 11 times for 45 yards.

The Cougars were held from scoring in the second half, but they also had other drives inside the Mt. Hood ten-yard line. One ended with an intercepted pass, one was stopped by downs and the third was ended by a penalty.

The Cougars set a new school record in the game. They rushed 107 yards and put the ball in the air for 286 yards, for a net gain of 394 yards. The old school record set in 1971, was 385 yards.

CCC gridders return home this Saturday for a 1:30 p.m. Homecoming clash against Grays Harbor at the Oregon City High School field.

Winter rally chosen

Tryouts for wrestling and basketball squads were held in the Clackamas Community College gym Oct. 26.

Chosen were: for basketball, Sue Stauffer, Pat Dorsey and Vicki Josi; for wrestling, Kelly Schatz, Nancy Disch and K. Larson.

There were fifteen judges consisting of coaches, administrators, student government members and classified staff who help choose the squads.

Cougars to face Grays Harbor

Clackamas Community College's football team faces Grays Harbor this Saturday, Nov. 6, at 1:30 p.m. in the traditional Homecoming Game at a site yet to be announced.

As of Friday, Oct. 29, Grays Harbor featured the top passing attack in the NWAACC conference led by their quarterback Mick Spoon (68-117 and 706 yards) and receiver Keith Brown (33 catches). The Chokers average 30 passes a game.

Clackamas, 4-4 on the year and 4-3 in conference play has made its reputation in the NWAACC this year with its defense. The Cougars hold the No. 2 spot in the conference in overall defense.

In their four games prior to the loss to Mt. Hood, the Cougars yielded a total of three points. The Cougars won all four games, equalling a school record that was set in 1974.

In their game with Walla Walla, the No. 1 defensive team in the conference, Clackamas outperformed their rival by intercepting five passes, recovering three fumbles, and holding the Warriors to a total of 117 yards on offense.

Making his debut at quarterback, Pat Moran, formerly of Forest Grove, passed for both of the Clackamas scores.

"Pat did a fine job. He made a lot of good things happen out there," said head coach Dale McGriff.

Bowlers compete

On Thursday, Oct. 21, the Clackamas bowling team competed against the Mt. Hood Community College team. The CCC men's team beat MHCC by 145 pins in three games. High game and three game series honors for the CCC men were taken by Paul Byers (202 and 576). Our women's team lost two out of three games to MHCC
