

Photos by Brian Snook

Poolologist hustles CCC billiard freaks

"Smiling Jack" White is on campus this week to demonstrate his billiard talents and supervise a campus pool tournament. The ex-pool hustler has kept the Fireside Lounge full of admirers seeking pool tips and watching his five and six-rail trick shots. White's credits include a White House command performance and four honorary doctorate degrees, including one in poolology.

